Rotary Scholars' Luncheon

A recurrent June event for years, our salute to scholarship took place under the stewardship of Greg Warner and his dedicated committee. Each of these yearly events produces what seems the ultimate in achievement, only to be at least matched the following June. What we see each time is the result of the consummate amalgam of ability and motivation, with a measure of parental dedication and persistence added. The last-named attribute may well also belong to those whose records, though not as outstanding, will carry many through to success.

Superintendent Jean Lane pointed to similarities between the Rotary ethic and that of the scholars. For not only was there academic excellence, but also a strong record of service within and without the school walls, extending to the community and to points more distant.

For Richland Rotary's part, we feel privileged to be at the launching site as they turn toward their futures. And we feel similarly toward those who possess the requisite qualities but did not quite make it to these proceedings. We cannot help but reiterate that which is frequently said of the Scholarship Committee. Faced with such an array of qualified candidates, and with a prescribed number of awards to give, the members have a job that is never easy or doable in a short time. Bouquets to them!

The Hanford Jazz Ensemble, an anti-somnolence outfit if ever there was one, gave forth a talented, spirited menu of selections. Should they ever need a name change, we suggest The Decibels.

Each year we are glad to see Theresa (with the h) Knirck, Counselor at Hanford High. She is a memory bridge to Bill Knirck, affectionately regarded late Richland Rotarian. There is a memorial bench to Bill where Snyder Street abuts the river. A photo of Bill and Theresa resides at Malley's Pharmacy.

The efforts of Dick McLean were apparent in the organization of the festivities. The program contains details of the awards. Below is Jan Jackson's photographic array of the event.

Dr. Jean Lane, Richland Superintendent of Schools, shown below, had the opening remarks.

An elderly gentleman had serious hearing problems for a number of years. He went to the doctor who was able to fit him for a set of hearing aids. They allowed him to hear 100%. He went back in a month to the doctor who said, "Your hearing is perfect. Your family must be really pleased that you can hear again." The gentleman replied, "Oh, I haven't told my family yet. I just sit around and listen to the conversations. I've changed my will three times."

I was meeting a friend in a bar and as I went in, I noticed two pretty girls looking at me. "Nine." I heard one whisper as I passed. Feeling pleased with myself, I swaggered over to my buddy and told him a girl had just rated me a nine out of ten. "I don't want to ruin it for you," he said, "but when I walked in, they were speaking German."
