At 3:00 pm on June 22 family and friends can gather for the interment at Sunset Memorial Gardens in Richland. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to either: The Hal and Nan Williamson Endowed Fund for the Rotary Foundation Permanent Fund www.rotary.org or the Janice (Nan) & Harold (Hal) Williamson, P.E. '51 Endowed Scholarship Fund Case Western Reserve University.

The Installation Dinner

Our annual rite of passage was lightly attended. Out going directors Cindy Johnson and Mike Sinclair were forced by circumstances to change their plans. Mike suffered a detached retina and was recovering from surgery. Cindy was called away to serve as part of the local team to organize and direct the effort to combat brush fires in the Tri-Cities. Linda Bauer was wishing them success as her house was being threatened by the fires. If you have an excuse for not attending it had better be as good as Cindy and Mike's. The judges were counting heads.

As you can see by the many pictures Art Kohler took, Mark & Jeanne Dillner's backyard provided a beautiful and sheltered setting for our festivities. Members gathered early around the drinks and mingled while Mark put the finishing touches on the steak and salmon. The potluck dishes and desserts were carefully lined up as they arrived and when the dinner bell (literally, Jeanne rang a big bell!) rang we lined up like a thrashing crew at harvest time and chowed down. After dessert was served the business portion of the party commenced.

Pins were exchanged between outgoing Tim and incoming Jeremy and their wives. Outgoing officers and directors were acknowledged and plaqued, some on the scene and some in absentia. Perfect attenders were awarded with the Champ being Past President Gary Scofield. Gary shared the information that he was president so far back that the club didn't even award a Past President Plaque to the outgoing president. I'm sure a portion of our next several meetings will be devoted to the disbursing of earned awards and accolades to those members who were unable to attend. Now Jeremy is off to Portugal to attend the Rotary International Convention and get energized to command and direct our club for the next Rotary year. Meanwhile, Tim will be grinning at the podium for another two weeks and eyeing a chair in the crowd as he looks forward to joining our growing multitude of PPs. So, another year has passed and the Duck Race looms ahead as another year begins. More fellowship, more service and more success to be achieved. Vive la Rotary!

Photos from top: Toast to new Prez Jeremy. Gary Scofield receives recognition for 30 years of Rotary with perfect attendance. Linda Bauer is pinned as Prez Elect. Rapt audience is spellbound by entertaining speech. A toast to new Prez Jeremy. Jeanne Dillner is showing off the empty pan. The Rotarians licked it clean!
