Song

Justin led us in an unusual version of "Summer of 69." His guitar rendition was (and always will be) unmatched. Inquiring minds want to know if he was alive in 1969. NOT!

Jack Zinn's wife Gloria passed away. At her request, the funeral will be a private, family only affair on Saturday, June 26.

News and Announcements

Interact will install officers on July 9, at 7 p.m. at the Richland Community Center. Members are encouraged to attend.

Judge Larry Lowry

Demonstrated a non-judicial bias toward WSU. He also fined the Port of Benton crew heavily, or attempted to do so.

Program

Phil Lemley introduced Darrel Ebert, the manager of the Tri-City Dust Devils. Darrel reported that 2600 people attended opening night. He also discussed the progression of a player from beginner status to the major leagues. There are approximately 5 spots per team, for the 30 major league teams, each year. He also emphasized how hard ball players work, 140 games per year at the Dust Devils level. Dave Lemak recommended a book on umpires,

As They See 'Em by Bruce Weber. It is available at the Richland Library. It is a book on cd, 796.3573.
