Speaker Schedule for July

- 21st – Judge George Fearing: Court of Appeals Function
- 28th – Dr. James Conca: Energy Challenges: An Overview

Preliminaries

Dick Richter presided in the place of newly elected and newly absent President Larry Lowry. Darrel Johnsen led us in a Rotary song to the tune of Anchors Aweigh, and Jan Griffen's invocation reminded us of how many needs are in our world for Rotary to address, and that we are grateful for cookies!

Visitors

One visitor in this week's meeting, Al Mounsier from Columbia Center Rotary.

Announcements

Roy Keck announced the ring party for the Duck Race is July 20. Barbara French said Rotarians could bring Quacker backer books to her office and her staff will print out the stubs. Speaking of the duck race, you now can sign up online for a time slot to sell Duck Race tickets at the Albertsons at Gage and Leslie.

50-50

The pot was $164. Jan Jackson had the lucky ticket but struck out. Ian Napier got the consolation prize, and promptly donated it.

Judge Ian Napier

Our newest American citizen challenged us with several questions from the test new Americans must pass. The good news is that most Rotarians can pass the test, and know the number of amendments in the Constitution, the name of the Constitution's first 10 amendments, the length of terms for Senators and members of the House of Representatives, the first three words of the Constitution, and the three rights named in the Constitution's preamble. But a certain table could not identify the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. (It's not Rehnquist any more!)

Program

Darrel Johnsen gave us an overview of an event to mitigate poverty in our community. It's called the Convoy of Hope, and it will be held in the Columbia Park band shell area from 9 am to 1 pm on Saturday, August 22. It's a collaboration of 37 churches, including Darrel's, and is the successor to the community's Sharefest event of recent years.

The event will serve 5000-7000 "guests of honor" and will give them, free, no ID required, the following:

- Kid Zone
- Haircuts
- Professional family portraits
- Lunch
- Prayer
- Health services, including dental
- Breast health services
- Nutrition education
- Job and Career services
- Backpacks with school supplies for kids
- Groceries

The event needs volunteers. To learn more and to volunteer or donate, visit www.convoyofhope.org/Tri-Cities.
