Duck Stuff

Greg H. commended those who volunteered.
Ring Party: Bill Taylor, Jim Bauer, Jeremy, Tom Cowan, LeRoy, Jeremy.
Packet: Bill Taylor, Jeremy, Laura Turo, Dan Skorski, Stan Jones, Phil.

The Duck packet distribution began. It will be continued for those who were not on hand. Meredith will be glad to aid Linda Bauer in shirt sales. The helmet is available, for a price. One selling point gone: the free car wash that each ticket purchase had earned.

Duck Race Teams are named, with rosters distributed.

Duck kickoff, unlike as in previous years at a multiclub conclave, is set to occur this Saturday at the Columbia Center Mall, near the food circus. This time the public is invited. Tickets can be sold. Various goodies will be distributed. Festivities begin circa 11 AM. Our two P/K visitors and Ed Revell spoke of the coming collaboration at the Elephant Ears concession at the fair. Previously this has had success. The returns aid our beneficiaries, such as Grace Clinic, and others.

Of, For, and By

Meredith demonstrated that being a greeter affords opportunity to get a roster book signed...A short film touted New Orleans, the site of the coming RI Convention. If the city is still there, it will be a good place to visit while sharing in international Rotary...A card was signed to give encouragement to Dave Lemak during his present siege, while he is away from our midst. The sentiments were many and deep...Notice was given of the Hanford House informal reception at 5PM, Friday, 7/24, for Charlie Wiggins, State Supreme Court candidate...Larry Lowry traced the history of the Four-Way Test, its applications, and its worldwide dissemination...Blue badges now adorn the raiment of Daniel Skorski and Laura Turo...The Board-approved budget was published for all to see. Memorization should take a moderately short time...We were judgeless...Jack had a shot at the 50-50 boodle, but retired a white chip. The odds continue to narrow as the prize takes on yet larger proportions.

Marlene Oliver, Rotarian

Marlene comes in under the sponsorship of Phill and the classification of Business/Medical Consultant. She has a wide and varied educational and teaching background, encompassing biology, physics and marketing. A large exposure to international approaches to disease, notably cancer, is prominent in Marlene's activities.

In her first remarks as a Rotarian, she invited conversation and questions from one and all, and at all times.

IPP Grant gave a charge to the new member and to all. He reviewed the objects of Rotary and the Four-Way Test. He observed that local and international service is her main interest. With her extensive travel, she will undoubtedly visit many Rotaries.

Marlene seems a natural for the Community Health and World Community Service committees.

RYLA

Laur Turo, Daniel Skorski, & Danae Johnsen returned from RYLA camp in Cranbrook with the enthusiasm that all so chosen have exhibited. Their experiences were predictable: enrichment, new friends, good times, leadership training, informed and entertaining speakers, shared memories, extemporaneous speaking, goal identification, reciprocal education about the US and Canada, fun, and a lot more.

They intend to follow through by going to the RI Convention.

A few interesting facts: There is a difference in Canada between college and university, depending on the time of study. Hitchhiking is routine and without trepidation in Canada, vis a vis the US. The assignment to draw the provinces and states was not an easy one. Money management cannot be learned at too young an age.

Trivialis et jovialis

Employed by the human development center of a corporation in the Midwest, a woman trained employees in proper dress codes and etiquette. One day as she was stepping onto the elevator, a man casually dressed in jeans and a golf shirt got on with her.

Thinking of her responsibilities, she scolded,

"Dressed a little casually today aren't we?"

The man replied, "That's one benefit of owning the company..."

In front of a delicatessen, an art connoisseur noticed a mangy little kitten lapping up milk from a saucer. The saucer, he realized with a start, was a very rare and precious piece of pottery. He strolled into the store and offered two dollars for the cat. "It's not for sale," said the proprietor. "Look," said the collector, "that cat is dirty and probably half wild, but I'm eccentric. I like cats that way. I'll raise my offer to ten dollars."

"It's a deal," said the proprietor, and pocketed the ten on the spot.

"For that sum I'm sure you won't mind throwing in the saucer," said the connoisseur. "The kitten seems so happy drinking from it."

"Nothing doing," said the proprietor firmly.

"That's my lucky saucer. From that saucer, so far this week I've sold 12 cats."
