Programs in July

July 30 – C. Mark Smith, Badger Club

Preliminaries

Jim and Linda Bauer led us in that crash hit from 1902, “In the Good Old Summertime.” The response suggested that not too many of us were around in 1902.

Visitors and Guests

The club welcomed visiting Rotarian Leslie Hawkins from Farmington, Maine. Phyllis Morris was the guest of Greg Warner.

Announcements

Thanks to Barbara French and her helpers for all the work they did on the Duck Race this week. The packets were here to pickup (Hooray). She went through the various pieces of information included in the pouches. There’s a list of all the prizes and the Quacker-Backer form. Lots of organization and information! Linda Gustafson played something from a toy duck (not quite as melodious as Roy’s duck call). We will be selling at the Richland Farmer’s Market every other Friday until the Duck Race. Please volunteer to help sell at the markets. Arrive at 8:00 and ready to leave at 1:00. Thanks to the Bauer’s for the tent that will keep us out of the sun! Jeanne Dillner announced a Sign Open House on August 7. Food, tours of SIGN, and you bring canned food for the local food bank. Linda and Jim Bauer brought Rotary club banners back from Hawaii and showed off a flag with the leader on which she caught a 300 lb marlin. The giant fish was tagged and released.

Nursing Scholarship Recipient

Greg Warner introduced Angelica Cole one of our nursing scholarship recipients. The very poised 20-year old is a student in the WSU nursing program and intends to right to a hospital and utilize what she has learned and then specialize in surgical nursing or in a delivery room. She thanked us, and we thank her! Phyllis Morris came up to say a few words about the WSU nursing program, telling us how difficult the curriculum is and how hard the students work.

New Member

On Thursday, July 18, the Richland Rotary Club Board approved Phillip Koech for club membership, pending the club publication requirement, orientation, etc. Phillip works as a Senior Research Scientist for Pacific Northwest National Laboratory and would be classified as Scientific Services. Phillip has not been a member of this or any other Rotary Club in the past. Please provide written or emailed notification to Blaine Carr, Membership Director, within the next 7 calendar days if you believe Phillip Koech should not become a member of the Richland Rotary Club.

50/50

There was $67 in the pot. Larry Jecha had the winning number but not the winning chip. Chris Smith's luck held out as he won yet another consolation prize.

Judge Putz

John delivered a heartfelt pitch on the importance of selling Duck tickets. Marlene's phone was disruptive and Linda was late. This is our 25th year of selling duck tickets. We've probably raised $2.5 million over that period of time. Several people bought new bicycles and bike gear. Several more bought Get Out of Jail Free cards. George Sanders announced that he and Libbie are celebrating an excellent prognosis from her recovery. Mike Winegardner bragged on his Air Force son who will be attending officer's school. Chris Smith bragged on his oldest daughter as did other members about their similarly-aged daughters. Congratulations to Rick Jansons. He is the new executive director of Habitat for Humanity. Congratulations, Rick!

Program

Our program today was Officer Rick Kane of the Richland Police Department and their Community Services officer and VIPS coordinator. Rick presented an extensive Power Point presentation that covered all aspects of his job and the various ways there are to protect ourselves from crime, including: personal safety, auto theft and vehicle prowling protection, burglary prevention, alarm systems, and identity theft protection. Officer Kane said that if you find yourself in an uncomfortable situation, trust your instincts and get away from there. Most of his advice was just simple common sense that, unfortunately too often, we all ignore. He suggested that we all carry a cell phone and don't be afraid to set off your car's horn if you have a problem—even in the dead of night by keeping your car keys next to your bed. Don't let people into your home unless you know them. Keep the bushes around your front door trimmed. Install 3" screws and a heavier striker plate. Don't let newspapers accumulate in front of your house—it says you are either away or dead inside. Make sure your burglar alarms are connected to a service. Shred your documents. Don't give out your personal information. Keep a list of your credit cards. Install anti-malware and spyware on your computer. Report crime and all suspicious circumstances.

Message from Dick Mclean

Linda and I ran across this statue in Kurcher Park in Knoxville, TN. It was placed there by Rotary District 6780 to honor three of their own. William T. Sergeant who headed Rotary's Global Polio Eradication Program and James Bomer & James Lacy both past RI Presidents.
