August Speaker Schedule

28th – Sandra Haynes, WSU TC President

Preliminaries

President Bob Tibbatts called the meeting to order and David Chavey-Reynaud led us through “Livin’ on a Prayer” by Bon Jovi. Darryl from Sunrise Rotary led the Pledge of Allegiance, and Blaine Carr gave the invocation.

Visiting Guests and Rotarians

Darryl Francis was visiting from Sunrise. Eric Andrews was a guest of Bob Larson.

Announcements

George Sanders was inducted back into the Club after some time off. He has been a Rotary member on and off since 1994. George has been married to his wife Libby for 29 years, and has a son, George Jr., living in Seattle. George is a Florida Gator, and obtained degrees in Nuclear and Aeronautical Engineering.

Jan Jackson gave the charge for George, which included a brief history of the Rotary logo and what the spokes and keyway represent.

Roy Keck announced the beach project has been completed, and called out a number of rockstars. John, Pat, Larry, Mike, Gary, and President Tibbetts did an outstanding job over the previous weeks.

New Member

The Richland Rotary Club Board has approved Eric Andrews for club membership. Eric works as a Deputy Prosecutor for Benton County and would be classified as Legal Services: Prosecutor. Eric is sponsored by Bob Larson and has not been a member of this or any other Rotary Club in the past. Please provide written or emailed notification to Blaine Carr, Membership Chair, within the next 7 calendar days if you believe Eric Andrews should not become a member of the Richland Rotary Club.

50/50

Gary led the 50/50 with $28 in the pot. Ken Williams took the $10.

The Honorable Judge Lowry

Judge Larry Lowry asked for brags and confessions, and pointed out some nice recent newspaper articles from Chris Meiers and C Mark Smith.

He then led the club through a quiz on Rotary statistics focused on polio (2.5 billion vaccinated worldwide by Rotary over 150 countries; Gates Foundation being the #1 supporter, followed up by the US Congress. Last year, between 12-22 cases were reported in total, which is up from the previous year.

Program

Today's program was led by Andrea Riggs from You-Medical, previously known as Tri-Cities Pregnancy Network.

You-Medical for sexual health and pregnancy, is a faith based organization located in Kennewick and Pasco. They opened in 1998 and renamed in July of 2017. They are focused on Prevention, Intervention, and Restoration. They do this through a number of programs:

1. Stronger Youth – a prevention program with established partnerships from Kennewick, Southridge, and Richland High, along with the Juvenile Detention Center. They offer classes now, and hope to offer STD/STI screening next year.
2. Medical Services – pregnancy tests and ultrasounds, primarily now offered through the Mobile Ultrasound bus, paid for from a grant from Focus on the Family
3. Moms Empowered – offering counseling on the three choices available to pregnant women, offering a "learning and earning" education program, and offering classes at Tri-Tech and New Horizons.

4. Stronger Fathers – led by Brandon Gregory, hired two years ago fulltime. Supports men to be confident fathers and husbands
5. Care Where Healing Happens – discussing healing from emotional, sexual, or spiritual hurts.

Previous donations from the Richland Rotary helped support the Boutique they have that provides necessary infant supplies (clothes, diapers, etc)

Andrea said they best ways to get involved are: Volunteer, attend an event such as Walk for Life, make a financial donation, or come in for a tour.

Reminders: Next Tuesday we will have a guest presentation by WSU Tri-Cities President Sandra Haynes.

Hal's Humor

When going to get his driver's license renewed at the local motor-vehicle bureau, a man was not surprised to find that the building was packed. The line inched along for almost an hour until he finally got his license.

He inspected his photo for a moment and commented to the clerk. "I was standing in line so long, I ended up looking pretty grouchy in this picture."

The clerk looked at his picture closely. "It's okay, that's how you're going to look when the cops pull you over anyway."
