Preliminaries

The Lodge at Columbia Point was a very pleasant venue for a wine and cheese fellowship event. The views from the second-floor breakfast room were lovely. President Linda, attired in her official club tee shirt greeted guests in the hall and showed them to the room and helped the Lodge staff to gather those that wanted to tour the hotel out to the lobby.

The general feel of the hotel is open and inviting with wide halls and lots of windows and natural wood beams and posts. The guest rooms are generously sized and have either water or mountain views. The pool area is covered against sun or rain to allow year around use, but open along the sides. The pool deck also includes a Jacuzzi and fireplace. Each of the rooms are named for a local winery, who will be doing regular tastings at the Lodge wine room.

The turnout was good for the event including a number of guests from other clubs. Jon Putz was collecting duck tickets as well. There was wine and nibbles available, including some good dark chocolate!

Remember next week is a breakfast meeting at 7:30 am Tuesday at the Red Lion.
