Preliminaries

Linda Bauer led us in the singing of the old Peter, Paul and Mary standard, “If I had a hammer,” written originally by Pete Seeger and Lee Hayes of the Weavers in 1949 to support the progressive movement, and later adopted by Peter, Paul and Mary (see, you CAN learn something here).

Guests and visiting Rotarians

Gary and Kris Troyer of the P-K club visited as well as Steve Hussey of Pasco-Sunrise, Jim Zimmerman of Columbia Valley Daybreak, and Leslie Hawkins of Farmington, Maine. Al Haggerty’s guest was again Aaron McCreight who is applying for membership. Pam Larson’s guests were Conner Craig and his parents, Phil and Carolee Craig.

Announcements

Jim and Linda have a great deal on calendars with “awesome photographs” in them, but they’re only good through the end of the year.

Jerry McGuire announced that the Community Service Committee will have an upcoming meeting, but Jerry wanted members to start thinking about local organizations that need our help in these difficult economic times with government support being withdrawn because of sequestration and other budget fiascos. Let him know of your ideas.

Jim Zimmerman promoted an event coming up on October 25 between 4:30 and 8:30 at Hot Wings on Columbia Center Blvd. All proceeds will to the RI Foundation.

Kris Troyer and her husband are currently hosting our inbound Rotary Exchange Student, Lukas Sarbach. They are selling apples to benefit the Richland High School music department.

Jim Bauer again announced our October 19 "Walk for Trash" highway cleanup. Please let him know if you are interested in participating.

Jon Putz announced that we need a replacement judge for the Judicial Committee.

Dick McLean announced that we turned in 450 ducks today. HOWEVER, we are still running behind our goal and members need to step it up if we are to sell our quota. Biggest sellers so far are Jon Putz, 950; Bob Larson, 375; Jim Bauer, 350; Linda Bauer, 325; Jack Zinn and Marlene Oliver, 300. Dick recounted how important our club had been to the history of the Duck Race. In 25 years, we have been either first or second in ticket sales. For us to sell less than 10,000 tickets this year would be a tragedy. The time has come to step it up, folks.

50/50

Shelley Kennedy said that there was $87 in the pot. Judy Addis pulled out one of the 16 losing chips.

Student of the Month

Pam Larson introduced our first student of the month, Conner Craig. Conner is a senior at Richland High and plays baseball, loves the outdoors, and volunteers to clean up Badger Mountain Trail.

Surprise Judge

Our surprise judge was Larry Lowry, who was hardly a surprise, having been a judge forever before retiring last year. Aside from the normal felonies, Larry fined several members for their new cars and assorted football wins and losses. Jon Putz had his picture in his paper. Pam Larson attended the Oak Ridge club and she said that, in comparison, we are young! Jerry McGuire celebrated his 46th wedding anniversary. Don Burrie bragged about his granddaughter and EWU's admissions staff. Dick McLean complimented Bob Best on Abadan's 60th anniversary celebration and the Rotary exchange party at the Bauer's. Between the two events, it was a long day.

Program

Our program today was Mike Winegardner who briefed us on the Richland Rotary Foundation Budget. Our largest potential source of income, $22,000 from the Duck Race, is in jeopardy from lagging ticket sales. Total receipts are budgeted at $75,850. Our largest estimated expenditure, $22,000, is for World Community Service projects. The second largest is $15,000 for community projects. Jon Putz and others suggested that in these economic times, perhaps we should scale back on our international projects and spend more of our monies on local projects. Expenditures are also budgeted at $75,850. Your editor believes that it was useful and enlightening for the club to be briefed on this matter.

Hal's Humor

A young woman gazed up from her hospital bed at the very handsome doctor who was examining her chart.

She fluttered her eyelids and said, "They tell me that you are a real lady killer."

The doctor smiled and shook his head. "No, I make no distinction between the sexes."
