Welcomed Rotarians

Columbia Center: Les Litzenberger, Sandi Strawn; West Olympia: Marie Sullivan (formerly one of us).

Guests

Jim Busey (Jon); Shon & Lisa Small (Sandi).

Hearty Huzzahs, Altitudinous Fives, and Pumpshakes of the Upper Extremities, to...

- Mike Winegardner, blue badge bearer.
- Dick and Linda McLean. What greater show of devotion to Rotary and its work could there be than the naming of the Foundation in one's will, as they have done? This lends a degree of immortality to the donor in the form of the continued humanitarian functions of Rotary Foundation. President Darrel presented them with a crystal memento of their largess and pins of a fairly rare nature. They are eligible for membership in the select Bequest Society.

- Jack Zinn, who served his country under conditions of extreme hazard. Jack, a PBY pilot in WWII, did his flying in the South Pacific. He showed a picture of this workhorse of a plane. Jack attended the final reunion of his flying group in Denver. Of 400 original attendees, 26 remain. It was time to close the book on this distinguished assemblage. The memories shall flicker on.

- Bill and Meredith Farris. A ring of considerable material and sentimental value has been placed into the custodianship of PrezzDarrel. It is more than probable that mixed emotions attended their decision to do this. It proclaims considerable devotion to the work our club does. The ring is to be auctioned, with the proceeds to benefit Richland Rotary.

They Who Announced

- Greg O.: Greg chairs the International Youth Exchange Committee. Two outgoing students are planned for next year. As to the incoming, host families will be needed for three-month periods. These students will probably attend Richland High. Prospective hosts may specify male or female preferences. A host family will be needed in the spring for a girl from Germany, who is said to be particularly engaging.
- Jan G.: Alluding to the get-well card we sent to Kim Pietrok, Jan reports that the surgery went well and was successful. Kim should return pretty soon. Jan said that Marge O'Connell is doing reasonably well after her loss and should be back after the several affairs shall have been settled.
- Cindy: She who finds herself in the Fellowship Committee chair gave the first call for the Guess Who's Coming to Dinner event in October or November. Hosts are needed. If willing and available, let her know.
- Dick R.: The Interact Golf Tournament's planning is underway. The beneficiary shall be Safe Harbor Crisis Nursery. Sponsors would be welcomed to subsidize teams, holes, and the like. A good deal of fun is planned, including games and the concluding dinner. All who can donate a small prize should do so. (Large prizes probably would not be turned down---Ed.)
- The Duck Czarina. Linda's final pre-race words: 1678 ticket stubs came in. Jack did 1050 sales. Turn in all unsold tickets to Greg H.'s office by Friday. Signups are in progress for setting up, work during the event itself, and post-race retrieval/cleanup.
- Ken: 4-5 workers will be needed. Assemble at Ken's place of business Friday at 4.

The Four-Way Test

Hal Williamson's innovative treatment of our major mantra constituted an unprecedented approach to the subject. He posed a hypothetical situation and asked that each table unit discuss it, then render opinions. It was asked how the actions, or non-actions of the principles satisfied, or did not satisfy, the points of the 4WT. There was considerable diversity of opinion. As Hal pointed out, there was no definite answer. One can surmise that conclusions were shaded toward whether one related to the perpetrator or the victim of the actions in the scenario.

Those having to leave early, we repeat, should extend regrets to the speaker in advance.

Judge Jeanne

The jurist treated birthdays and anniversaries first. The court heard such matters as retirements, hip surgery, football scores, a laudable search by the Bauers for Cindy's phone, a fishing triumph (on large scale) by Jan J., the Revells' travels, ex-Richland Rotarian Marie Sullivan's race ticket purchase, and divers others.

Jokery

Teacher: Give me a sentence using "I".

Pupil: I is....

Teacher: No, always use "am" with "I".

Pupil: I am the ninth letter of the alphabet.

The tough businessman was feeling ill and went to the doctor. The medical practitioner examined him and backed away, saying:

"I'm sorry to tell you this, but you have an advanced case of highly infectious rabies. You must have had it for some time. It will almost certainly be fatal."

"Could you give me a pen and paper?" said the businessman.

"Do you want to write your will?"

"No, I want to make a list of all the people I want to bite."
