This week at Rotary: Paul Rozycki – Municipal races and ballot proposals

Join us in person or on Zoom!

Speaker Round Up

Our speaker for Oct. 21 was our favorite political pundit, Paul Rozycki. Paul helped us navigate the mid-term elections. He said that at the national level the control of the Congress is at stake. All 435 members of the House are up for reelection and 34 of the 100 Senate seats are on the ballot. A loss of 5 seats in the House could give Republicans a majority, but the Democrats have some chance of keeping their majority in the Senate.

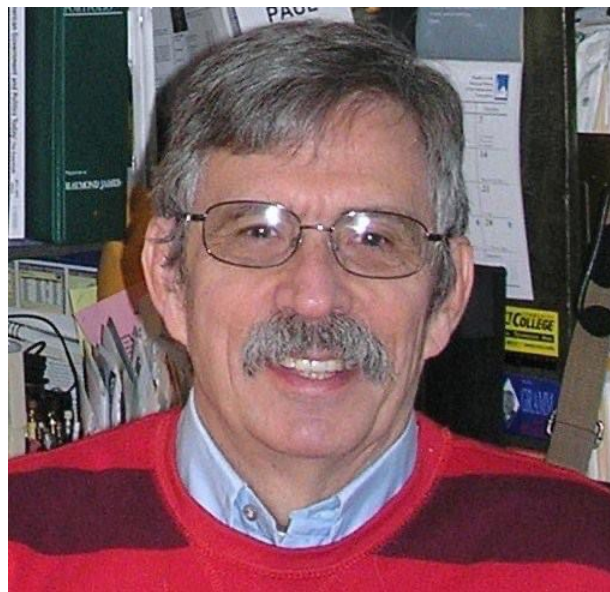

At the State level he said one of the most significant facts about this election is not just the gubernatorial race, secretary of state and attorney general races, but the number of "election deniers" running for state office. He does not feel this bodes well for creating trust in future elections.

He said the big issues candidates are contending with are abortion and the state of the economy/inflation.

This Friday he will continue his analysis with comments about the municipal races and

Ballot proposals. Paul admitted he personally likes the option to absentee vote because for folks not as tuned into politics as he is, they can research the races and candidates more easily.

Haiti Update

Marc Schillinger reports that efforts to bring potable water to residents of Haiti continue to make progress despite the recent troubles there. With Rotary connections and on-the-ground know-how, we have a successful project in a challenging environment. We are up to 8 tanks now.

The Rotary Four-Way Test

Of the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?"
