Valley Area Agency on Aging

Helping people live independently as long as possible is the goal of the Valley Area Agency on Aging, said CEO Kathryn Boles at our Sept. 7 meeting.

The organization has served more than 108,085 people over 60. Boles said that 10,000 people turn 65 every day, and by 2030 there will be more People over 65 than age 18.

Funded by both the state and the federal government, the VAAA is the funding source for Meals on Wheels. It also oversees the KISS program – Keeping Independent Seniors Safe, MMAP (a Program to help seniors navigate the health care system and the Retired Senior Volunteer Program, or RSVP, to name a few. RSVP is a volunteer network for people 55 and older who address local needs such as mentoring youth, serving in the national parks, providing disaster assistance, and supporting vets and military families. To become a volunteer call the VAAA at 810-239-7671.

The Rotary Four-Way Test

Of the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?"
