As the fog slowly lifted, we made our way into the brightness and business of Rotary. At 12:16, President Mark Zuccaro clanged the bell and summoned the group to attention. We had the pleasure of a guest announce the Pledge of Allegiance and the singing of the national anthem in Ethan Zettel Hughes with Piano Gary accompanying. Pres. Mark crafted "The Four-Way Test" and Sam D'Angelo gave a written prayer covering all the bases of life and our world. The meal was back to the Italian fare, chicken, pasta with a cream sauce, green beans, salad and rolls with vanilla and chocolate cake.

Our guest Ethan Z has been a busy guy in support of the club. He helped his mom Sandra Zettel out at trunk-or-treat and is planning on helping with the Thanksgiving parade (Nancy D needs volunteers.) For this he was awarded a certificate of appreciation by Pres. Mark. WELL DONE a future Rotarian in the making.

Kudos were given to The Salvation Army bell ringers organized by Elsa Silverman; the weather was perfect.

Our new Rotary signs were erected around town by Nancy D, Sal D, and Pres. Mark.

- We had 44 people at the euchre party which was a great success; way to go who attended.
- There will be no meeting next week due to Thanksgiving. Please check the list of events coming up for a busy December.

- The district conference at the Grand Hotel is May 4-7. Sarah Lee has the info.

- The club's spring fundraiser will be May 12 with a dueling piano theme.

The Rotary Minute was given by Paul Woodring. Paul has enjoyed his 27 years with the club and the wonderful friends he has made and the good times he has had.

The "Don" not Torline Carnaghi listed our guests of, soon-to-be-new-member Stephanie Mirabile, Ethan Zettel Hughes and Kim Fix.

FLOWERS

Dave "dangerous" Meldrum has been sniffing the flowers thinking it was February for birthdays and anniversaries in November.

Sheree Patterson had a B-day along with Lori Wright. Club anniversaries of 25 years for Mary Ann Hosey and Nancy D 27 years. Val Miller passed one to the staff worker Tina.

Newby Chuck Dib presented a flower to Kris Howell for her sponsorship of him into the club.

Ray Glime recognized Ethan Z's hard work with a petal. Dave M on general principles bestowed a flower to Bob Leslie, and for standing in for Pres. Mark's absence Elsa S is one flower richer.

The musical duo of Tom Isett and Piano Gary cranked out "Victory for MSU" (they are going to need it) and "All Hail to Rotary."

GOODWILL and ANNOUNCEMENTS

- I led the way with goodwill of an upcoming article in The Macomb Daily courtesy of Linda May and the Joan Rose Foundation and the district grant the foundation is receiving. Look for it soon in the paper.
- Don C is pretty chuffed about his son getting married.
- Nancy D is still tracking down headsets for Martha T. Berry's Xmas gifts at $20 pp.
- Sarah L announced sign-up sheets for the Xmas party on 12/8 at the Stahl's Auto Museum $50 pp.

RECOGNITION

For recognition, Nancy D called on a new member from each table to answer a ??? Thank God Stephanie M and Kelly Allen knew the answers to the ??? and saved us lucky ones $$$.

Unfortunately Chuck D and Dave Gerlach failed and cost their table a buck each. Piano Gary's slow playing cost him $2. Since Val M brought the winning player euchre guest, sour grapes Nancy D trumped her for $5.

SPEAKER/PROGRAM

Karen B introduced our speaker Dr. Martino from the Wellness Champion Center located in Chesterfield Township. The topic of the day was how to relieve stress in our life. Dr. M claims it's the "silent killer" and over 2,500 die each day heart disease caused by stress. Most of the time it is triggered by a stressful event such as an accident or injury (or writing the bulletin). He noted that there 12 signs and symptoms of stress, fatigue and insomnia are common. Society manages the stress by medication which leads to more pills and problems and is not the right way to go. The studies have shown that 75 percent is lifestyle and 25 percent genetics when comes to stress induced heart failure. The three types of stress can be broken down into physical, emotional and chemical. Some solutions to the three are physical exercise, changing your "stop doing list" and your diet all can lead to a positive outcome. Once stress is inflicted to the spine this causes major health issues and this where Dr. M is an expert. For $20 he will give you a comprehensive evaluation but you had to sign up on the spot at the meeting. Red wine as Don C notes is a good stress reliever and I concur.

50/50 winner Ken "the system is rigged" Kish for $26.

President Mark Zuccaro called the meeting to order a few minutes past 12:15 p.m., as our larger-than-usual group was getting seated. Mark "Smitty" Smith led us in the Pledge of Allegiance and the national anthem. Mark Z. took over for "The Four-Way Test" and Tom Davies gave grace, noting the special presentation marking the upcoming anniversary of the bombing of Pearl Harbor.

Our many guests were first in the chow line and lunch included salad, rolls, pasta, green beans and lemon-spiced chicken. Our excellent waitress, Tina, was kept busying refilling the green beans, salad and chicken for the nearly 50 in attendance. Cookies were available.

President Mark mentioned the excellent job Nancy Dedenbach did in organizing Rotary helpers for the Mount Clemens Santa Parade, which was financially aided with a $1,000 donation from the club.

Mark also said the Wellness Center, which provided our speaker at the previous meeting, donated $250 to the club.

He also mentioned a number of special upcoming events and dates to remember.

- The club's annual Christmas party is Dec. 8 at the Stahl's Auto Museum in Chesterfield Township. The event starts at 6 p.m. and there is no meeting that afternoon. Contact Sarah Lee if you haven't already signed up at ellenafamily@gmail.com. Remember NO day meeting on Dec. 8.
- The Fraser Singers will entertain the club at the Dec. 15 meeting. This is our most popular meeting of the year and those bringing guests should call or email President Mark or Val Miller. The meeting will be held in the larger dining room so members and guests should use the main entrance.
- There is no meeting on Dec. 29. There is, however, a meeting on Dec. 22, featuring a speaker on global poverty.
- President Mark also encourages members to plan on attending the district conference at the world-famous Grand Hotel on Mackinac Island. It's May 4-7.
- The annual fundraiser next year is set for May 12 and will feature "dueling pianos."

Kevin Kelly introduced our guests: Don and Mira Green, Joe Peruzzi, David Wagner, Elaina Conklin, Carol O'Grady, Liz Vogel, Michail Curro, Ron Dedenbach, Bob and Jane Selwa. (Larry Moloney attended but did not sign in because he's on a diet and didn't eat.)

Since there was no meeting on Thanksgiving Day, the list of birthdays and anniversaries for club members and spouses was quite long but that still left plenty of flowers to be sold, since our florist provided two weeks' worth. Of special note, however, are Chuck O'Grady who marked 62 years in the club and Paul Woodring, who admitted to being 87 but doesn't look old enough to be on Social Security.

Remaining flowers went to Don Green from Larry Neal, Carol O'Grady from Eric Pierson, Liz Vogel from Glenn Burton, Bob Lee from Kris Howell, Mira Green from Eric, and Jim Haselwood from Ron Dedenbach (but it went on Nancy's bill). Because of the special program, we sang only one song. Paul (the boy wonder) Woodring choose "Oh, What A Beautiful Morning."

Goodwill: Kris mentioned the passing of Jessie Johnson's grandfather. Mike O'Connor thanked Rotarians for sympathy at the death of his brother.

Bob "The Actor" Lee was at his best handling recognition. He tossed out fines faster than I could write them down. Val paid $4 for recommending new members, Beth Pryor paid for a bad photo. Kris contributed $4.99 for another successful play in Richmond. Dave Gerlach paid $4.99 for his new beard. Liz Vogel's tablemates paid $1 for something to do with her spending $100. Nancy's tablemates paid $2 for being seated with a wonderful parade organizer. Elsa Silverman was honored as best dressed. And finally, U-M grads paid $2 for losing to Ohio State. However, the Spokesperson has learned that Coach Harbaugh will appeal the fine to President Mark.

Our program detailing the Dec. 7, 1941 bombing by the Japanese of Pearl Harbor was organized by Don Green, club member emeritus; Ray Glime, a current member, Chuck O'Grady, a current member, and Joe Peruzzi, a former member who researched and coordinated the slides. The program was the result of a series of meetings as they formulated the topics and researched news reports.

It was a moving historical lesson that even included the little-known fact that the Hilo Tribune Herald, a newspaper in Hawaii, had on Nov. 30, 1941, printed a front page story headlined "Japan may strike over the weekend."

Don Green, who served more than two years in the military during the war, recalls how within days of the attack long lines formed at the military recruiting office in downtown Mount Clemens.

Chuck O'Grady, who was only 13 when the attack occurred, recalled the overwhelming support of President Truman's decision to use atomic bombs to defeat the Japanese. It was a program all of us in attendance will long remember and a reminder of why we open each meeting with the Pledge of Allegiance and the national anthem.

The 50/50, worth a hefty $47, was won for Bob Selwa, who once penned a history column for The Macomb Daily and attended specifically because of the Pearl Harbor program.

President Mark Zuccaro arrived at the meeting early and helped the banquet center staff rearrange the seating, since they had failed to adjust the tables to accommodate visitors for the annual holiday show by the Fraser Singers. After President Mark rang the bell promptly at 12:15, Bob Cannon led us in the Pledge of Allegiance and the national anthem. Tom Davies gave the prayer, mentioning the entertainment and the snow. How could he have missed the bitter cold. After recitation of "The Four-Way Test," it was on to lunch, which included, rolls, salad, green beans, roasted potatoes and chicken. An assortment of pastries was available.

Since this was our pre-holiday concert, we had plenty of guests. They included: Rosalie and Robert Kehrig, Steve Pryor, Diane Kish, Gretchen Glime, Debbie Magness, Lucia Marshall, Elaine Johnston, Carey Furest, Stephanie Mirabile, Rose and Jim Caldwell, Carol O'Grady, Laura and Layla Carnaghi, Larry and Linda May, Marie Devlin, Lois Pierson, Barb Richards, Mary Kay Sogge. Jeff Furest introduced his guest, son Jonathan Furest who is now a registered investment advisor with the family firm. Jonathan also cashed in at the end of the meeting by having the winning 50/50 ticket worth $52. He's following a family tradition in the 50/50.

President Mark turned over the mic to Sarah Lee, who introduced a new corporate member. Stephanie Mirabile, who works for Sarah at the Lee-Ellena Funeral Home. A former Mount Clemens resident, Stephanie is a graduate of Western Michigan University, currently one of only two undefeated football teams in the country. She is married and looking forward to being an active member of Rotary.

President Mark mentioned the recent holiday party at Stahl's Auto Museum, noting that his long-lost gavel was returned at the bottom of a jar of pasta noodles. He thanked Tom Davies for the return of the pilfered gavel but, as usual, Tom denied being the thief.

It was also announced that our upcoming board of directors election features five candidates for two, two-year terms. They are:

Karan Bates-Gasior, Patty Kaufman, Dave Meldrum, Beth Pryor and Art Niederkohr.

- Kris Howell then announced that distinguished Larry Neal has agreed to serve as club president when the Mount Clemens Rotary Club marks its 100th year.
- Don Carnaghi was on flower duty and apparently extra flowers were available because of the expected number of guests. As best as could be followed with the quick sale: Val for her guest Debbie, Jeff 1st for Val, Mary Kay for Beth, Don for his wife and granddaughter, Frank Bernabei for his two guests. Eric for his mother, Kevin Kelly for his mother-in-law and Dave Meldrum for Linda May, who does a great job on the Spokesperson.
- Goodwill included Beth noting a new grandchild and Elsa Silverman thanking club members for donating more than $700 for headsets for patients at Martha T. Berry.
- Jackie Johnston gave a farewell statement about her retiring at the end of the year and how much she enjoyed being a member of our club. She was "blown away" by the dedication of club members to our community. We'll miss Jackie as much as she'll miss us.

We skipped our own singing and recognition to give more time to the Fraser Singers. It's a holiday tradition started by Mary Ann Hosey when her kids were attending Fraser High. The Fraser Singers, more than 40 strong, are directed by Nicholas Charland, vocal music department head for Fraser Schools. He graduated from Fraser High in 1996 and has degrees from Wayne State University and Central Michigan.

President Mark Zuccaro called the meeting to order at 12:15 sharp and our newest member Stephanie Mirabile led us in the Pledge of Allegiance and the singing of the national anthem.

That was followed by President Mark starting us off on "The Four-Way Test" and Tom Davies giving the prayer, mentioning the break in the cold weather and wishing all a safe and happy holiday season. Lunch included salad, green beans, pasta and breaded chicken with extra marinara sauce. Holiday cake, decorated in white, red and green icing was available.

President Mark's announcements included club funds going to scholarships for L'Anse Creuse students and the fact that the donation of $3,000 from the Pierson Foundation will be given annually. On behalf of all Rotarians, Mark thanked the Pierson family and Eric was in attendance.

A schedule conflict forced Dave Meldrum to drop out as a candidate for the board of directors. With two, two-years available, the remaining candidates are Karan Bates-Gasior, Patty Kaufman, Beth Pryor and Art Niederkohr. Ballots will be available in early January.

It was also stated that the $400 piano purchased by the club – and not being used – is available at "best offer."

President Mark then presented gift cards to CARE, accepted by Susan Styf, and Turning Point, accepted by Karan.

Art introduced our guests: Susan Styf, guest of Karla Gardner and Jaclyn Corio, our speaker.

Don Carnaghi was the flower-seller and he did his usual great job, particularly since there were less than 30 in attendance.

Birthday flowers went to Bob Cannon, and Diane Kish, to be delivered by Ken.

Ray Glime bought two flowers, one for Cecilia Moloney, who twisted her ankle in a fall and in her absence sent Larry to assist the host committee (what dedication!) and another for Diane Kish. Piano Man Gary purchased a flower for our lovely waitress, Tina; Patty Kaufman for Sarah Lee for organizing the Christmas party; Julie for Glenn Burton; President Mark for our two guests.

Sandra Zettel was our song leader and she found out why we seldom sing "When You Wish Upon a Star." We weren't exactly on key but we improved with a Rotary song.

GOODWILL

Glenn Burton couldn't help but bring up the fact that his alma mater, Northeastern, beat Michigan State in both hockey and basketball. Tom Davies then noted the 96th birthday of former member Marty Rubin, who lives in Denver and is still doing well. That led to Dave Meldrum noting that Marty built the first Coors' beer truck and Karan noting that she now lives in a house Marty built.

Julie also announced that her credit card billing system will be available in January.

RECOGNITION

Bob "the barrister" Lee was on recognition and he showed no mercy as almost all the fines were for $4.99. He got Julie for something to do with the collection basket. Karan paid for having her photo in the newspaper for Turning Point receiving furniture and computers donated by Candice Miller, who leaves Congress to become Public Works Commissioner. Sarah was hit for NOT attending the Christmas party she organized. Gotta admit, though, she had a good reason. She was in New Orleans. New member Stephanie Mirabile paid for a trip to Japan. Mary Ann Hosey for a gift tag snafu caught by Beth. Jeff 1st paid twice, for a trip to Miami and being the best dressed. Ken Kish paid for having his photo in the Goodfellows' Razzberry newspaper.

Sandra Z. for not selecting a Christmas song for us to sing (even though none are in the book). Glenn was hit for $3 for his offer to pay only $2 for Northeastern beating MSU. All those sitting with Eric Pierson paid $1 each for the pleasure of the company of such a wonderful guy (and family). Everyone wearing red was hit for $2. And finally, Tom "the king of recognition" Davies paid $4.99 for not being able to tell us his all-time favorite fine.

PROGRAM

Karan introduced our speaker, Jaclyn Corio, an advocate for The Borgen Project. The acclaimed nonprofit lobbies Congress for funds to rid the world of poverty and hunger. Its primary efforts are to help countries improve their job markets, increase national security, and reduce overpopulation. The project is headed by founder and president Clinton Borgen, a Washington State University graduate. Headquarters are in Seattle. The project has been featured in many magazine and newspaper articles. As its website claims "one man and a laptop can change the world."

50-50 The year-end 50/50, worth $29, was won by Ray Glime. And since I sold him the ticket, I expect at least one martini.
