Lebanon-Riverside Rotary Club

- Chartered in 1990

Lebanon-Riverside Rotary Club

We are known for our work with youth and young adults.

Specifically we:

- Built and now help to maintain the most used park in the city, the skateboard park on Glen Road;
- Support Listen by doing canned food drives, preparing meals, and helping at the holidays with holiday baskets.
- Support literacy through our “First Grade Readers” program and support of Kilton Library children’s book program;
- Develop young leaders through support of Rotary Youth Leadership Award program;

Lebanon-Riverside Rotary Club

In addition, we have participated in:

- Hosting annual Speech Contest
- Supporting SPARK
- Park Clean-ups and Maintenance
- Rail Trail Clean-ups
- Provide academic and vocational scholarships, and
- Support the Grafton County Drug Court participants.
- Kilton Library, Children's Books and Little Free Libraries
