ANNOUNCEMENTS

Martin Anderson spoke about Polio and the importance of finishing the job. Polio is a water borne disease so it was deemed impossible to eradicate by most experts. But Rotarians started raising money and giving the drops literally millions and millions of times. Why does it matter? The vaccination rate is actually lower today in the US than it was in 1979. People don't think polio exists anymore, but we are one plane ride away from being infected again. We must finish the job. Sign up sheets are on the table. You can bill your account or send donation to RI directly. Help is finish the job.

John Bradley needs to know who's not coming to Chili Cook Off. He is in charge of staffing and will get the assignments out next week.

Cary Runnels shared a thank you note from the winning 4 Way Essay contest winner, Ben Chou.

Steve Pederson shared that Karen Henry's Memorial service will be on Friday at 10 am at Pierce Brothers Mortuary.

Pat McCoy announced Community Service Day on April 26. It will be held at Golden Heart Ranch in Agoura. More details will be sent out. Starts at 8 am with continental breakfast and finishes around noon with hot dog barbeque. Please join us for a fun morning of service.

HAPPY $$$$

Dave Burns carried the cup.

Trevor Tyloch welcomed Janet Hartley and offered thanks to Ernie Sandlin for lunch

Steve Pederson put in a happy $ for Judge Brian Back, Past President of our club who was hiding in the back of the room.

Joani Pappas shared appreciation of those folks signing up for Storybook Project, saying there is a date change so she will have to let us know when it is rescheduled.

Karen Furnari said she spent the morning at RYLA. If you've never been, you should make a point to go, she noted. Please also acknowledge Darin Arrasmith when you next see him. He is truly amazing in his leadership of RYLA. She said Darin is a Saint!

PP Brian Back contributed because he decided to come visit our club today and found out we were meeting somewhere else. But he made it even though he was late!!!

Neal Scribner commented on the Chili Cook Off poster distribution

Nelson Buss once again said he was the only Buss in the room since his two sisters were absent. His nephew will officially be a Marine tomorrow!

Tony Kourounis was apologetic for Brian Back. Also, his daughter had a baby yesterday so he is a 2nd time grandpa.

FINE SESSION

Martin Anderson was Fine Master.

Those fined were PP Brian Back who didn't list the correct friends, Tony Kourounis who thought he was Brian's friend, Steve Stanley because we have been subjected to 3 boring fine sessions by Ean Kleiger and Steve, as a fellow dentist, should have saved us from that pain, David Stowell for going on a 6 week vacation, Nelson for representing all the Buss's so often, Paul Dryman for not sending out enough reminders about the Club Social, Karen Furnari, for being our next president, Hugo Roche for being incomprehensible and Joani Pappas for being such a smartie (he used a different phrase).

He asked lots of other folks questions about the history of income taxes.

Program: May 3rd
