More Craft Talks

Program: August 18th A Double-Header:

Mid-Summer Eve Wine Event and Craft Talk

Roger Benson and Carol Freeman reminded us that the Mid-Summer Eve Wine Event, would be held in two days, was a great contribution to the community. They thanked those in their committee and those who volunteered to help preparing for the silent auction.

They then shared a very emotional video produced by Special Olympics. Carol reminded us that to date $700,000 has been raised from this event. $350,000 goes to the Rotary Foundation and $350,000 to Special Olympics. She recognized all Sponsors, Wineries, Breweries, and Food Vendors and also highlighted auction items collected by Rick Hand. She then reminded all of us that the event was started because of Ed Hager and the event will be dedicated to him.

After the Wine Event presentation, Matt Morrison interviewed Marc Feigen. Marc, in commercial real estate, came to the Conejo 4 years ago because he "wanted to get out of the city." He's been married 8 years and the first thing he ever said to his wife "May I have your phone number?" Mark loves baseball and even coached high school baseball. He had brain surgery 4 months ago at St. Vincent's Hospital. Craziest thing that ever happened to him is that at 17, he was hitch-hiking and got picked up by Michael Jackson!
