Craft Talks

Matt Morrison interviewed four club members and asked about their background in Rotary, their youth, their work, their aspirations, and what else they wanted to share with the club. Those interviewed were new member Chris Hanner, Dave Krehbiel, Ken Warner, and Jennifer Schwabauer

Program: March 16

Los Robles Hospital—Intervention & Growth

Lois Curran-Klein introduced our speaker today, Amy Commons, Vice Chairman of the Los Robles Board of Trustees of Los Robles Hospital.

LRH was built in 1968, and now has four campuses: main campus, east campus in Westlake Village, surgical hospital on Rolling Oaks drive; and imaging center in Moorpark. Amy went on to tell us about many of the programs and capabilities of the hospital now, such as the robotics program started 2010, trauma center, pediatric care, wound care, etc. Everything is cutting edge and state of the art.

They are still in the process of expanding both facilities and services: for instance, expanding the radiology department; doubling the emergency department over the next 15-18 months. They are introducing 5 new emergency care facilities: Agoura, Westlake, Simi Valley, Thousand Oaks and Camarillo.

Los Robles Hospital is one of only five hospitals in the US with the official standing of "Hospital of the Future."

Thousand Oaks Rotary

Minutes of Meeting

March 2, 2017

Sharon Renshall shared what inspires her: someone who helps another, then another, then another, with the possibility of those being helped then help others. She also spoke of the courage of her husband who doesn't let his ALS keep him from doing things like playing tennis and helping with Rotary events. After the Moment of Inspiration Dave Krehbiel led the club in God Bless America.

President Robert Bianchi asked Sharon Renshall to also introduce guests. Skip Roberts, a Past President and honorary member was introduced as a visiting Rotarian, as was Tracy Eriks of Moorpark. Nate Harimoto introduced Chris Darmon, a veteran with a K9 for Warriors pet. He shared how this gift had changed his life dramatically. Lois Curran-Klein introduced her guest Joyce Pearson.
