The Troubles of Ireland

Irish John Gore

Lois Curran-Klein introduced Irish John, friend of Rotary and of many Rotarians. He was the perfect guest speaker as we celebrated Saint Patrick's Day. He and his wife came dressed significantly appropriate to the day with hats and bling enhancing the wearing of the green

John shared his journey to California from Northern Ireland in the 60's as he sought work and soon became enmeshed in the entertainment newspaper world. He told stories of his early California days, presented with humor and heart.

He ended the program with a favorite poem, made all the more engaging by his brogue. He was indeed a sharer of the spirit of Ireland.
