Cabrillo Music Theater

Will North, Managing Director

Carol Freeman introduced Will North, Managing Director of Cabrillo Music Theatre. He told us a little more about the Theatre, and introduced the following singers - with beautiful voices: Jacqueline Rosenthal. Who sang "Don't Cry for Me, Argentina" from Evita, and "Neverland" from Peter Pan; and Janaya Jones, who sang "The Life I Never Led" from Sister Act. They were accompanied by Ben Ginsberg, the pianist for all the Cabrillo performances.

Bart Leininger, Chairman of the Board of Cabrillo, said that Cabrillo Music Theatre has similar goals as Rotary, in that they also do performances for special groups, and encouraged us to attend performances at the Civic Arts Plaza. Cabrillo is also the group that performs for Military Night at Port Hueneme Naval Base at Christmastime, the event at which many of our Rotarians pass out cookies to the families.

Evita will be playing at Thousand Oaks Civic Arts Plaza October 14-23. Sister Act will be there April 21-30, 2017; Peter Pan will play July 14-27, 2017.
