GUEST SPEAKER: MRS. MARIA ATTADEMO-HIRT

Inter-American Development Bank

MARIA FLORENCIA ATTADEMO-HIRT is the Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) Representative for Country Office Bahamas, since 2015.

Prior to this, she was the Operations Principal Specialist in the Capital Markets and Financial Institutions Division in the Institutions for Development Sector, where she led a number of lending and technical assistance operations in a variety of topics and countries, ranging from broadband and energy interventions in certain small Caribbean states, to access to finance projects in Haiti. She has also served as Senior Advisor at the Vice Presidency for Sectors and Knowledge as Senior Operations Advisor at the Vice Presidency for Countries.

She holds a J.D. from the Universidad Nacional del Litoral, in Argentina, and an LL.M. from the University of Chicago Law School, was a Fulbright Scholar, and is admitted to the bar in Buenos Aires and New York.

THE INTER-AMERICAN DEVELOPMENT BANK (IDB) has a mandate to support economic growth in Latin America and the Caribbean, and to support social and institutional development, the private sector, trade and regional integration. Through financial and technical support for countries working to reduce poverty and inequality, IDB helps improve health and education, and advance infrastructure.
