THE FIVE AVENUES OF SERVICE

- 1. Club Service focuses on making clubs strong. A thriving club is anchored by strong relationships and an active member development Plan.
- Vocational Service calls on every Rotarian to work with integrity and contribute their expertise to the problems and needs of society. Learn more in An Introduction to Vocational Service and the Code of Conduct.
- 3. Community Service encourages every Rotarian to find ways to improve the quality of life for people in their communities and to serve the public interest. Learn more in Communities in Action: A Guide to Effective Projects.

- 5. Youth Service recognizes the importance of empowering the youth and young professionals through leadership development programs such as Rotoract, Interact, Rotary Youth Leadership Awards, and Rotary Youth Exchange.

Innovative effort sparks two new clubs

by Yvonne Kumoji, 2020-21 governor of District 9102 (Benin, Ghana, Niger, and Togo)

As an incoming district governor, my training at Rotary's annual leadership event in January 2020 in San Diego, California, included information on forming new clubs and new club models. Words that then-Presidentelect Holger Knaack had shared with us resonated in my mind, words like innovation, adaptation, change, being different. Then I thought about Toastmasters, and wrestled with how those thoughts fit together.

I visited a Toastmasters event with a member of my leadership team that was being held in my country, Ghana, and sought out their Division Director – the Toastmaster equivalent of a District Governor. Papa Arkhurst is an amazing, committed, and passionate man with a flair for words. His enthusiasm is infectious. I introduced myself, but of course he already knew all about our new strategic partnership. Word quickly spread that 'Rotary' was in the hall. We exchanged contact details and agreed to meet up for lunch to chat.

A Night with Toastmasters

A few days later, over lunch, I suggested we hold an event: "A Night with the Toastmasters," starring both of our organizations. I also suggested we invite each other's clubs to our meetings to start the bonding process, featuring presentations on what each organization stood for.

I felt this initiative was ideal since Rotarians could benefit from the great art of public speaking and communications skills from the Toastmasters. In return, the Toastmasters could gain from the humanitarian drive of Rotarians as we introduce them to Service Above Self. Both groups had a common focus in building leaders.

Fliers were circulated in advance to build enthusiasm. I spoke via Zoom to members of Toastmasters on "Why I Am a Rotarian." On a different day, Arkhurst gave a presentation to Rotarians on "The Toastmasters Experience." Questions were answered at the end of each presentation and it was clear that both sides had been quite unclear on what the other really stood for.

I suggested we help each other form a new Rotary and Toastmaster club. The invitation was given to all members, and in no time, a list of potential members began to emerge. We hoped for 25 members to form the core of the new clubs. We selected club advisors to train new members on becoming Rotarians and Toastmasters. Past District Governor Sam Worentetu – Ghana's club extension chair – and his team had already

Presidential conference offers relationship building, collaboration

By Alex Ritchie and Taylor Huie, executive co-directors of the Ascension Rotaract MDIO, and Ally Fisher, chair of the RotarActs of Kindness campaign

As life-long members of the Rotary family, our passion for Rotary and Rotaract stems from the deep friendships we have formed and the meaningful service we have taken part in. These last few years have been a whirlwind, from first meeting at the 2018 Rotary International Convention in Hamburg to launching a new Rotaract Multidistrict Information Organization (regional groups of Rotary districts that form for the purpose of disseminating information and facilitating communication among Rotaract clubs in the participating districts). Through this, our friendship with each other and the connections we have made with others have truly been life-changing.

We're excited about an upcoming event that will give attendees a chance to collaborate, share ideas, and celebrate our Rotary relationships. The third of Rotary International President Holger Knaack's three presidential conferences will take place virtually on 14-16 May 2021. The theme "Collaboration Through Relationship Building" honors Rotary founder Paul Harris' emphasis on true relationship building and empowering the unique assets that each individual contributes to the magic of Rotary.

"The theme honors Rotary founder Paul Harris' emphasis on true relationship building and empowering the unique assets that each individual contributes to the magic of Rotary."

Hosted by Ascension Rotaract Network MDIO, in partnership with the annual Rotary Zone 33 Leadership Seminar, each general and breakout session will be co-led by a Rotaractor and Rotarian to emphasize our members are serving as equal partners.

This virtual event will feature deep-dive problem solving with Collaborative Project Challenge Breakouts. These sessions will offer an opportunity for attendees to work together in developing sustainable solutions to complex problems in a way that is inclusive, innovative, and encompasses the lessons learned throughout the conference. With Rotaract's elevation to partners of Rotary and increased access to the Rotary Foundation, we are especially excited about the RotarActs of Kindness virtual fundraiser benefiting the Rotary Foundation Disaster Response Fund. With this FUNdraiser, attendees can choose from Yoga, Cooking, Mixology, or a TedX-style event.

The Presidential Conference Series USA is open to all Rotarians, Rotaractors, and friends from around the world. Space is limited, so we encourage you to register before the deadline of 1 May 2021. We look forward to seeing you!

created a training program and he jumped in to help recruit and train new Rotary members. All training was done virtually on Zoom due to COVID-19. We added all prospective members to a WhatsApp platform so the club advisors could share information with them.

A new way of thinking

Twelve weeks later the Rotary Club of Accra-SpeakMasters and the New Age Toastmasters Club received their charters from their respective organizations. On 20 January 2021, the Rotary Club of Accra-SpeakMasters proudly joined the Rotary family. Both Arkhurst and myself are proud members of each others' organization.

This model has opened up my thinking and approach to pursuing new members. I have contacted other organizations and associations, such as engineers, insurers, environmentalists, the oil and gas industry, aviation, to consider joining Rotary. The opportunities now seem endless.

Your Advantage...Our Passion

RI President's April Message

This year, we celebrate Earth Day on 22 April with a new sense of purpose. The environment is now an area of focus for Rotary. Solutions for all great tasks always start with you and me, and there is much we as individuals can do simply by changing our behavior: Cutting down on our use of plastic and using energy wisely are just two examples. But now we have the opportunity to do more together.

Supporting the environment is not new to Rotary; clubs have long worked on environmental issues based on local needs. Now climate change — a problem that affects us all, rich and poor - requires us to work together more closely than ever. Alberto Palombo, a Venezuelan engineer living in Brazil and a member of The Rotary Foundation Cadre of Technical Advisers, shares his view.

For 30 years, my work has been to connect with communities and policy officials to take care of the environment. Today, I am excited about Rotary's opportunities to help reduce environmental degradation and make communities more environmentally sustainable.

In every community where we have a Rotary, Rotaract, or Interact club or a Rotary Community Corps, there are environmental challenges. As Rotary members, we can become stewards of environmental sustainability and adopt the United Nations 2030 Sustainable Development Goals in our daily lives at home and in our clubs. Then we can incorporate them into our Rotary projects.

My club has been involved with water and environment projects since day one. We seek opportunities to empower Rotarians and foster partnerships in our region and beyond, working with groups such as the Inter-American Water Resources Network and the World Water Council. Local clubs worked with the Water, Sanitation, and Hygiene Rotary Action Group (wasrag.org) to help Rotary get a seat at the table during the 2018 World Water Forum in Brasilia, where we discussed how communities can recover from environmental disasters like the one caused by the failure of a mining dam on Brazil's Rio Doce in 2015.

Taking care of the earth is an effort that never stops. To make an impact, we must align our knowledge, abilities, and enthusiasm — and Rotary is already great at doing this. As a volunteer with the Environmental Sustainability Rotary Action Group (esrag.org), I have seen how our work for the environment dovetails with much of what we are already doing in water and in our other areas of focus. Rotary members are not passive spectators; we take action. Let's work together and make a positive impact.

Support from The Rotary Foundation will define this new chapter in our service. Through district and global grant projects, we will build upon our previous projects that help the environment. We will look for ways to collaborate more closely and make a greater impact on global environmental issues. And we will incorporate environmental concerns into all of our programs, projects, and events.

Rotaractors and participants in our youth programs expect Rotary to take a clear position and provide leadership with vision. We will work with them, seeking intelligent solutions to the problems they will inherit. Our incredible members, networks, and Foundation give us the capacity to make an important and lasting contribution. Now, we will discover together how Rotary Opens Opportunities to help us expand our service to preserve the home we all share.

Holger Knaack President 2020-21

\odot \odot MOTIVATIONAL QUOTE Learn to lean on yourself. By Webster Edwards

Learn to lean on yourself and resist the temptation of depending too much on other people. You already have answers to most of the perplexing problems of our times.

You also have an abundance of resources garnered over time, which provide ready assistance for facing some of the issues with which you are presently confronted.

Listen courteously when advised by others, but filter what you hear through your mind, choosing those which readily conform with your best judgment.

There is always a deep urge for acceptance, hence we sometimes mistakenly accept advise which run counter to our better judgment.

But take charge of yourself, remember that you too have been richly endowed by the wisdom of the ages.

Think therefore for yourself, be guided by your own vision and seek to be the unique person that you are.
