Your Advantage...Our Passion

Mobilizing volunteers through the power of Rotary

By Lisa Hunter, Rotary Club of Maidenhead Bridge, Berkshire, England

I am so proud to belong to an organization that empowers ordinary people to work together to make a difference in other people's lives. Through the Rotary network, we come together to use our skills and knowledge to support each other and build up our communities.

Nowhere was this more apparent to me than at the beginning of the pandemic, when our community went into lockdown and people were isolated and shut in. My club formed a Community Response Team to mobilize a network of volunteers to do what we do best: support those who need help in difficult times.

In mid-March 2020, we set up a web portal where people could fill out a form and ask for our help with certain errands including shopping, picking up medication, or even walking their dogs. We also had volunteers who would call people who wanted someone to talk to. In addition, we supported 23 families referred to us either directly by local schools or through other charities, with weekly food parcels.

We launched a marketing campaign to get the message out including sending out press releases, conducting radio interviews, and posting notices around the community. We also knew we would need many volunteers, so we put together a robust volunteer management plan outlining what we expected of our volunteers, how they could protect themselves and the people we were helping, and where they could call to talk about any concerns or share their experiences. We established links to trained counselors to provide emotional support for volunteers if needed.

We ended up supporting more than 150 households working with other groups and charities in our communities and assembling a pool of 120 volunteers. Some of these were existing Rotary members, but the vast majority were people who responded to our call for help. We were able to perform more than 3,800 errands that equated to more than 6,500 volunteer hours.

Our worry was that we would emerge from the lockdown and find that there had been people who hadn't been able to get the food or help they needed. We wanted to make sure everybody had somebody to keep them supplied and looked after.

As part of the weekly food parcels, I went to the supermarket for 42 weeks conducting a mammoth shop for food, filling my car to the point where I couldn't see out the rear-view mirror and then transforming my home into a mini supermarket. My daughter Chloe got involved and helped to create all the food parcels for our team of five delivery drivers to pick up.

To bring a bit of fun to the project, we also included special treats such as Easter Eggs for Easter, Christmas presents and sweet treats for the festive season, a

APRIL 25th is WORLD MALARIA DAY

By Diana Schoberg and Geoffrey Johnson

World Malaria Day on April 25 spotlights a disease that has plagued humans throughout history. In 2020, cases of malaria topped 241 million causing the death of over 627,000 people, most of them young children under the age of five. The prevalence of malaria, especially in sub-Saharan Africa, is a major obstacle to economic advancement and improved living conditions for the rural poor.

Rotary International, The Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, and World Vision are hard at work implementing Rotary's first Program of Scale. As an example, Partners for a Malaria Free Zambia are training over 2,500 community health workers to diagnose and treat active malaria cases in their home villages. This is reducing the malaria burden, saving lives, and strengthening the health care system.

RAM-Global and it's partners are working with governments and private sector partners in West Africa, Uganda, South America, and the Pacific Rim to eliminate malaria, a disease that is both treatable and preventable. Someday soon, we hope that vaccines currently in development will be widely available to help in the fight.

We believe that malaria can be eliminated through a comprehensive Rotarian campaign similar to Rotary's successful Polio Plus campaign. It is the goal of RAM-Global and many Rotarians around the world, that when polio is finally eradicated, malaria elimination will become the next Rotary-wide global initiative.

This year, take World Malaria Day personally.

Get involved. Be informed. Take action.

Together we can beat malaria.

The Long Wood District Story and our Collective effort

The Long Wood Youth Club brought to national attention the Long Wood Basic School and their financial issues due to COVID-19 and a longstanding problem with water supply to the school. After watching the nightly news, our Rotaractors from the Rotaract Club of St. Andrew made plans to donate some well-needed paint to beautify the school so the students can learn in a comfortable environment. Through a collective effort, the Rotary Club of St. Andrew partnered with the Rotaractors to donate a water tank that will assist with storing water at the school so they can use it once school is in a session.

Our collective effort brought out many Rotarians and Rotaractors to aid the Long Wood Basic School. This activity was appreciated by community members and the staff at the Long Wood Basic School.

We believe that we can achieve so much more together when our efforts are pooled. Here is to Service Above Self!

pumpkin to carve at Halloween, pizza making kits and special baking kits that included a recipe and all the ingredients needed to make it.

I had one mom send me photos of her children making flapjacks using the recipe card and ingredients we'd included in their parcel one week. They looked so happy, but I did feel slightly guilty as they insisted on getting up at 6 a.m. to make them. Still, it showed how we were making a difference by providing cheer through tough circumstances.

As the children went back to school, we also included various items of stationery and cards wishing them well.

The last element of our plan included providing winter support grants to help struggling families pay their heating bills and giving them tools and information to manage their ongoing bills or reduce utility costs. One thing we have been mindful of during the whole project is ensuring sustainability. The last thing we want to do is pay off someone's heating bill and have them be in the same position in a couple of months. This involved working with other charities to help families research better energy providers or referring some families to debt counselling services.

We were one of the first towns in the United Kingdom to set up mass vaccination clinics and once again we rallied our volunteers to help manage the lines, register people, and make them feel at ease as they came in for their shots. We had a separate team calling all those eligible for vaccination to encourage them to come in to be vaccinated.

Never in our wildest dreams did we think the project would become as big as it did, or that there would be so much need. But it was so rewarding to be there to help when people really needed us. I am immensely proud of my club's efforts and believe the project demonstrated the power of Rotary to make a difference.

Rotary Facts

At our 1933 convention, #Rotary founder Paul Harris told attendees, "Rotary is thrown open to representatives of all walks of life, to representatives of all countries and all forms of religion...Herein lies the genius and the glory of Rotary."

Today is Paul Harris' birthday. In 1938, when he turned 75, Harris received birthday telegrams from the Rotary network around the world, a testament to the value placed on friendship and goodwill in the early days of Rotary.

New diversity, equity, and inclusion courses

An inclusive club culture is one where everyone feels welcome. New courses in the Learning Center can help you cultivate this kind of environment by learning ways to assess and improve your club.

Building a welcoming environment starts with talking about diversity, equity, and inclusion. Discussing these topics takes time and isn't always easy. The Creating an Inclusive Club Culture course will help your club have these discussions, evaluate your policies and practices, and make changes to create a more inclusive culture.

Microaggressions are statements or actions that offend people or make them feel unwelcome by reinforcing negative stereotypes or asserting power dynamics. The Microaggressions course will help you to understand the harmful impact of such behavior and to respond in ways that uphold Rotary's commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusion.

A club whose members have different backgrounds and perspectives has a broader understanding of the community, the issues it faces, and possible solutions. Diverse clubs also attract more members, reflect Rotary's core values, and expand our ability to make a difference. The Diversify Your Club course offers strategies for building relationships with new groups.

Visit the Learning Center to find these courses and others. You'll need to create a My Rotary account if you don't already have one.
