The power of the Rotary logo

By: Charles Pretto, 2022-23 district governor of District 5340 (USA)

I like the Rotary logo — the one with the wheel and the word “Rotary” next to it. It’s not always a popular opinion though. Some members prefer the old Rotary wheel and continue to use it, even though it was retired nearly a decade ago. In some ways, I get it. We Rotary members can be traditionalists.

The modern Rotary logo has something that the old one doesn’t though: name recognition — literally. The word “Rotary” (or Rotaract) is in big letters. It’s easy to read and most importantly, it’s easy to identify. I experienced that difference first-hand when I started wearing the modern Rotary logo on my lapel pin.

From my dental hygienist to the person bagging my groceries, I was getting asked about Rotary everywhere. I never had this level of engagement before! You know why? Because we aren’t a big corporation like Starbucks with a logo you just know. The wheel doesn’t mean anything to the public. By adding “Rotary” to the wheel, our logo becomes much more identifiable. And because of that, I’ve had many delightful conversations with people. Some have even joined our club meetings to learn more about Rotary. It’s been a great recruitment tool.

Recently, the RI Board of Directors began asking Rotary and Rotaract clubs to update their club logo to include the Rotary logo and their club name. I realized that if every club did this, it would tie us all together as one global Rotary network.

When I begin my term as district governor, my goal is to get all 60 clubs in my district to update their club logos. I’ve already started talking about it with my district public image chair and presidents-elect.

I know public image can’t be a priority for every club — they have other issues and challenges to focus on. So for those clubs who need additional assistance, but lack the resources to do it, I am starting a program in my district that will connect Rotaractors who are studying marketing or a related field with clubs that needs help with their branding and public image. It’s a win-win situation! Rotaractors who need real world experience will get it by using their talents to help clubs increase their public image in the community.

If your club wants to update their logo but you don’t know where to start, I recommend reaching out to your district public image coordinator to see what resources might be available from your district.

When we all use the Rotary logo, it really pops! And the awareness of our logo can help engage more individuals, welcome more people into Rotary, and do good in the world.

DG Louis - February Message

Dear Fellow Rotarians,

The theme for this month is Peace and Conflict Resolution – as an organization, peace is the foundation of our mission. Rotarians believe that when peace is achieved in communities, it can have a lasting global effect. By doing projects and peace fellowships/scholarships, Rotarians take action to address the original cause of conflict which can include poverty, discrimination, and lack of education to name a few.

Nowadays with our World becoming more digital – the young generation can be taken astray by those with malice motives. An Interactor from Brazil, named Gabriel Kenji is a great example of how digital conflict can be resolved. In 2017, he was horrified to learn about an online suicide game called the Blue Whale, which preys on vulnerable adolescents. The game starts off harmless, as the youth are asked to do challenges over a 50-day period, which eventually included self-harm and ended with the teenagers being urged to take their own life. This game was created in Russia and there have been over 130 suicide cases that were allegedly linked to this game. Interactor Gabriel created a new game called the White Whale which helps to boost self-esteem, self-worth and encourages peaceful interactions among youngsters. Challenges included forgiving yourself for mistakes, exercising daily and posting positive messages on social media, etc. Interactor Gabriel says: "We want to show young people that they can make small changes to change the direction of their lives. And, that there is another path for teenagers to take that is far removed from an action like taking your own life."

At the time of the interview, Interactor Gabriel said that over 4,000 people have shared the White Whale's Facebook page with a reach of nearly 30,000. With the help of fellow Interactors and the local Rotaract Clubs in Brazil, they are spreading the word by handing out brochures at bus stations, busy intersections and family and friends. Interactor Gabriel says: "I'm so grateful that my Club and other people in the Rotary family are taking a small idea and making it big."

In conclusion, for this month of Peace and Conflict Resolution, I encourage you all to continue the great work Clubs in the District are doing in your communities and globally. Every one of us can make a difference, no matter how big or small the action, as we can see in the example with Interactor Gabriel.

Yours in Rotary Service,
Louis Weber
District Governor 2021-2022
District 7020

How to recruit and support Rotary Peace Fellow candidates

Clubs and districts have the power to shape the next generation of peacebuilders by recruiting Rotary Peace Fellows and helping them stay involved with Rotary after their studies. Each year, The Rotary Foundation awards up to 50 fellowships for master's degree programs and 80 for professional certificate programs at the seven Rotary Peace Centers around the world. By supporting a peace fellow, your club or district can engage with the program in meaningful ways.

"Through years of being involved in the peace fellowship process, I'm still thrilled and admire the serious and high quality of the candidates who apply to the program," says Gideon Peiper, Rotary Peace Fellowships subcommittee chair for District 2490. "It's a wonderful experience to follow this process, developing a personal connection with Rotary members and knowing that peace fellows will have a memorable experience that will contribute to their professional as well as their personal life, all made possible by the tremendous support of Rotary members worldwide."

Districts interview applicants and endorse candidates for consideration by The Rotary Foundation. Clubs can help in these ways:

- Recruit candidates.
- Support candidates. Complete an online training course in how to do this effectively.
- Provide a club recommendation for a candidate, which is optional but highly encouraged.
- Encourage members to join your district's Rotary Peace Fellowships subcommittee, which interviews candidates.
- Contact your district Rotary Peace Fellowships subcommittee chair or district Rotary Foundation chair for more information.

MOTIVATIONAL QUOTE

FACE THE FUTURE WITH CONFIDENCE

by Webster Edwards

We can learn and be inspired by the past, but should never allow ourselves to become slaves of the past.

Life is dynamic, it changes constantly. The well worn strategies that guided us in the past might not necessarily be prudent or appropriate in our world today. The certitudes of yesterday can easily become the uncertainties of today.

Try not to become frustrated. Strategies employed in the past may not work simply because they might have outlived their usefulness.

It might be necessary to abandon the life we had planned in order to grasp the new realities of the world that is fast emerging.

This induces real fear and uncertainty, especially within a context for which we have not been adequately prepared.

Yet we can learn from experiences of the past whether they were good or bad, using them as stepping stones on the journey ahead.

Therefore face the future with confidence and welcome it enthusiastically, for therein lies the promise of a brighter tomorrow.

ROTARIAN CODE OF CONDUCT

The following Code of Conduct has been adopted for use by Rotarians all over the World. This is based on "The Four-Way Test".

As a Rotarian, I will:

1. Act with integrity and high ethical standards in my personal and professional life.
2. Deal fairly with others and treat them and their occupations with respect.
3. Use my professional skills to mentor young people, help those with special needs and improve people's quality of life in the world.
4. Avoid behavior that reflects adversely on Rotary and other Rotarians.
