PRESIDENTIAL MESSAGE

JUNE 2020

My Rotary journey began 40 years ago when I joined the Rotary Club of Decatur, Alabama, at the age of 25, and it has brought my family and me many unforgettable moments. But nothing could have prepared me for connecting with the world as president of Rotary International. My individual Rotary journey has become a shared Rotary journey with each of you.

All of the incredible people Gay and I met this year — Rotarians, Rotaractors, and the extended family of Rotary — will be an inspiration for the rest of our lives. We visited clubs and projects from Uruguay to Ukraine, from Nigeria to New Zealand, and beyond. We were privileged to crisscross the globe, circumnavigating it twice and moving back and forth between the Northern and Southern hemispheres. Each country and each stop held its own Rotary magic. While in Zimbabwe in March, we participated in a medical vocational training team mission with Rotarians from India, providing health, hope, and life itself to the thousands who came for treatment. We also felt the energy of more than 300 young people at a Rotary Youth Symposium in Harare. What a thrill it was to be with these young people!

This year Rotary launched our new Action Plan, and I trust each club is putting that plan to use. And I have been energized by the efforts to embrace the priorities I set for this Rotary year: engaging families, providing leadership opportunities for all ages, celebrating our history with the United Nations in its 75th year, and, most significantly, growing Rotary.

As COVID-19 reached around the globe, we found ourselves in a world transformed. We have been forced to connect in ways we could never have imagined, testing our ability to adapt. We have made tough decisions, including canceling club meetings, district conferences, presidential conferences, and, much to our regret, the 2020 Rotary International Convention in Honolulu. Together everyone is placing the public good and welfare first, despite the loss of meetings, events, and experiences that had been planned for years.

As we looked forward to the Rotary Convention in Honolulu, we learned about the aloha spirit. Our Rotary friends in Hawaii showed us that “aloha” means mutual regard and affection. It extends warmth and caring with no expectation of anything in return. The spirit of aloha applies wherever in the world we may live. As Rotarians, Rotaractors, and members of the family of Rotary, we are connected, and as aloha has been defined to me: Our connection to one another is based upon mutual respect for our differences as well as our appreciation for what we have in common. Community is the sum of individuals — individuals who have concern for one another, who care, share, and take responsibility.

As I have witnessed the members of the Rotary community act to care for humanity amid the coronavirus pandemic, I have seen the aloha of Rotary. We are indeed people of action. Every day, but particularly during this pandemic, the Rotary community has demonstrated its aloha spirit. It is a gift to be shared, and we are each a steward of this gift of Rotary. Gay and I have been amazed, inspired, and humbled by all of you within the family of Rotary.

Indeed, I would say that the last part of our shared Rotary year was transformational. We found new ways to make the lives of others better, new ways to move forward together. And, together, we will continue to grow Rotary so that we may increase our gift of Rotary to our local and global communities.

Gay and I will always remember and treasure our year with you, our shared journey, as Rotary Connects the World!

Mark Daniel Maloney
President 2019-20

HOLDING A CHANGEOVER CEREMONY VIRTUALLY

The end of the Rotary year is fast approaching. And with that, clubs are beginning to think about their traditional changeover ceremonies. Like many things in the world after the COVID-19 pandemic, having these in person isn't an option. Clubs are asking, should we postpone or cancel? I want to pose another question, why not adapt and hold one virtually?

It may seem beyond reach to organize. But my fellow Australians will remember the highly successful re-imagining of ANZAC Day; an entire set of cultural ceremonies typically built around physical proximity. An unlike ANZAC Day, we already have lots of experience in the world of virtual events.

The first thing a club needs to do is ask why a changeover is important to you. “Rotary chicken dinner” aside, this answer varies from club to club. But it is the key to designing a virtual event that will capture all the significance of an in-person one. Typical elements of a changeover include:

- Celebrating accomplishments. This involves looking back on a year of hard work. This shouldn't just be a vanity for the president and board, but something all members can take pride in.
- Acknowledging service. Honoring those members who stand out among us is still important. Hard work in service and generous giving should be celebrated.
- Looking forward to the year ahead. We need to get excited about new opportunities for service, and opportunities to work together for a brighter future. This is what hope is built upon.
- Sharing fellowship. Now more than ever we need to stay connected. While it can be difficult to banter over zoom, we need to keep the bonds of friendship strong.

But how do we plan such an event? Here are some tips for each stage.

- Setting the agenda. Good news here. Your agenda doesn't have to change! If your club has a program, use it and convert it to work online.
- Running the event. Have a good master of ceremonies. You will need this person to keep things moving, keep the audience interested, and keep everything running on time. They should know the platform and what features it offers for hosting an event. Being able to mute some participants can come in handy. It is also useful to have a second person manage the technology while your master of ceremonies handles the people.
- Handling awards. Set aside time for the club president to announce award recipients. For those awards that are not a surprise, like Paul Harris Fellow upgrades, mail them early, and have members show off their new award as they're announced. Other awards can be mailed ahead for the recipient to display during the ceremony. If your club has a tradition of passing a gavel or handing over a presidential collar, consider doing it ahead and recording a video.
- Managing a large audience. Anyone who has been in a large Zoom call knows that it's hard to spot who is talking, or where a particular person is, even if they're the only ones unmuted. The Spotlight Video feature of Zoom allows the host to select a single person to display to everyone. During awards presentations, this can help zero

ROTARY CLUB OF ST. ANDREW'S COVID REPOSE

The club recently made a contribution to the Curlin Johnson Basic School and its children as they continue to face the coronavirus pandemic. President Audley visited the school to make the handover along with IPP Kemmehi and AG Marie.

The Teachers and students greeted to gesture with much excitement. RCSA continues to do good in the community!!!

RCSA would like to extend heartiest congratulations to the Hylton Family who is celebrating their son Benjamin's graduation from AISK and receiving one of the schools highest honour, the Empowerment Award.

HOLDING A CHANGEOVER CEREMONY VIRTUALLY CNT'D. FROM P9

in on the person of the moment. With any large event, it's good to plan early and practice ahead of time.

Why not put it on hold until after the pandemic? You could. Your club's changeover belongs to your club, and the event is run for the benefit of your members. But before you rush to do that, consider that changeovers are moments in time, and we hold them as close as possible to the turn of the Rotary year as a point of significance in transition. The further away from 1 July the event is, the less meaning it may hold. Would a physical changeover in November be more meaningful than a virtual one in June?

COVID-19 is a challenge. Even with all our efforts, members might find it hard to feel as attached as they did. Changeovers are a beautiful occasion to celebrate what we do, and the value of being a part of the club. If we just ignore such a pivotal event, will it be harder for our members to feel excited about paying their dues come July?

ROTARY NEWS!!!

ROTARY'S VIRTUAL TELETHON RAISES MORE THAN $520,000 FOR COVID-19 RESPONSE

More than 65,000 people worldwide watched the #RotaryResponds virtual telethon on 2 May, which raised more than a half-million dollars for COVID-19 disaster response efforts.

In the online event hosted by Past Rotary International President Barry Rassin and Past RI Director John Smarge, members from around the world showed how their clubs and communities are fighting the pandemic caused by coronavirus. The money that was raised, more than $521,000, will fund at least 21 Rotary disaster response grants to pay for projects related to the pandemic.

The telethon, coordinated by Rotary Foundation Trustee Jennifer Jones, showed inspiring video messages from government dignitaries, including Alejandro Giammattei, president of Guatemala; Josephine Ojiambo, former Kenyan ambassador to the United Nations; Andrew Mitchell, member of parliament of the United Kingdom; Karina Gould, member of parliament of Canada; and BBC television personality Zara Janjua and RI President Mark Daniel Maloney. Musical entertainment included performances by Tara Watts and Rotary member Aaron Blomme.

"You [Rotary members] have risen to the occasion and adapted to the COVID-19 pandemic, proving that the world needs Rotary now more than ever," said Maloney. "I have never been more proud to be a Rotarian."

MOTIVATIONAL QUOTE

“Boredom the curse of our times”

By Webster Edwards

“ A young colleague recently complained of boredom. Growing up in the world of yesteryear, it was unheard of for young persons to complain of feeling bored. There was always a creative approach to leisure, making things, doing things and meaningfully filling any void with homemade recreational pursuits.

Today while many persons complain of being bored, some of us find ourselves confronted with too much to do and never enough time to accomplish all.

Boredom has been defined as a form of learned helplessness. It remains true that when there is no focus or motivation to achieve, one is transported into a world of meaninglessness and unreality.

Today we need to provide the necessary stimuli that will serve as an antidote for the boredom of our times.

We can begin by conveying to our young charges, strategies for the creative use of leisure..... reading, volunteering, planning and creating. Strategies without which the human race cannot continue to exist meaningfully and life would remain dull, uninteresting and without value.
