ISU Rotaract Club

by Burnham, Nate

The ISU Rotaract Club, sponsored by Ames Morning Rotary Club, is starting up again for the new academic year. To help the club recruit new members, we are urging those District 6000 Rotarians who are connected to ISU students to encourage their sons and daughters, nephews, nieces, neighbors, etc. to check out the Rotaract Club and consider joining.

The club is involved with several local service activities and also plans to do some fund-raising in support of international projects this year. Meetings are held on campus every other week, and Rotaract members are of course welcome to visit meetings of the Ames Morning club as their guests. It's a fun group and a good way for college students to establish a link to Rotary International. The club will be represented at ClubFest, to be held on September 8 in the ISU Memorial Union, or those interested can contact the club president, Heather Sinclair (granddaughter of former District Governor Don Goering) at heather.a.sinclair@gmail.com.
