RI Convention Montreal, Closing Remarks

We in Rotary aspire not to mediocrity and half measures but to honest and lasting accomplishments--to noble deeds done well. For it is so true, as Mark Twain had it, that "twenty years from now you will be more disappointed by the things that you didn't do than by the ones you did."

You will never, at the end of your time on earth, regret having helped improve the lives of others--you will never regret having been part of bringing clean water, health, literacy, or hope. You rarely hear of someone wishing they had spent more time at work and less with their families, nor will you yourselves regret the hours you took to be there for others in their time of need.

In Rotary, we share a commitment to our fundamental core values: service, fellowship, diversity, integrity, and leadership. We believe that a community with a Rotary club is better off than one without. We believe that there is hope for a better future--and we believe it is up to us to build it.

RI President John Kenny

The Object of Rotary

The object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and in particular, to encourage and foster;

- I. The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;
- II. High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying by each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;
- III. The application of the ideal of service by every Rotarian's personal, business and community life;
- IV. The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST of the things we think say or do first

Is it the TRUTH?

second

Is it FAIR to all concerned?

third

Will it build GOOD WILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?

fourth

Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
