Joyce Lash, Program Speaker July 9

Joyce Lash Program Specialist- Family Resource Management, Iowa State University Extension has a M.S. Degree in Family and Consumer Sciences Family Financial Planning from Iowa State University. Joyce has a B.S. in Ed. Vocational Home Economics from Truman State University. From 1971-2003 she was a Family and Consumer Science Educator and has been with Iowa State University Extension since 2003.

Sharing consumer knowledge and helping individuals apply family financial planning skills to everyday decisions is the focus of programs offered by ISU Extension Resource Management Program Specialist Joyce Lash.

Whether working with individuals, families or community groups, Joyce utilizes teaching, facilitation, and coaching skills to help others grow and succeed.

Programming topics include budgeting, insurance, income taxes, retirement planning, investments, housing, and consumer rights and responsibilities.

Joyce will be giving us information about Housing Trust Funds; where they are now, what they do, and why the community will benefit from the project.

Board Meeting July 9

The Rotary board will meet this coming Friday, July 9 at 11:00 a.m. at Carpenter's Hall. This is a great way to make-up a missed meeting and to learn more about Rotary.

Building Communities Bridging Continents

"Rotary is the best in the world at linking people of goodwill around the globe and then gaining their cooperation and support to make the world a much better place to live and work.

My primary task as president is to enhance the vitality and viability of Rotary clubs and to enable them to succeed in the midst of societal changes. This is an important task because it is the clubs that address and alleviate the root problems of society and thereby make the world a better place.

Ray Klinginsmith, RI President 2010-2011

The Object of Rotary

The object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and in particular, to encourage and foster;

- I. The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;
- II. High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying by each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;
- III. The application of the ideal of service by every Rotarian's personal, business and community life;
- IV. The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST of the things we think say or do first

Is it the TRUTH?

second

Is it FAIR to all concerned?

third

Will it build GOOD WILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?

fourth

Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
