President's items

- 1) Dennis Drager, District Governor visit 11:00 a.m. The meeting started with everyone sharing who they are, how long they've been in Rotary and what they like about our club.

How can the district leadership assist your club? More interconnectedness with district leadership and other clubs, share links to videos with information related to the monthly magazine and other things we need to know about. An online newsletter is in the works. Clubs need to send in events to the District calendar.

Are there any topics you would be interested in for district wide Zoom meetings?

Special speakers that might be interested in presenting to our club.

What are the ways your club engages members?

Annual fundraiser, Evening club, participation in outreach in schools

What ongoing service project is most successful within your club. Why do you consider it a big success?
