LAST WEEK CHILD PASSENGER SAFETY IN SCOTT COUNTY

North Scott Rotary member Linda Frederiksen and her associate, Brian Leonard from the Eldridge Medic Station, educated 79 others on the importance of proper use of child restraints in moving vehicles. Linda said to be sure and buckle your own seatbelt, to be a good example to your children and grandchildren. Free car seat checks are done every Saturday somewhere in the Quad City Area. They are the third Saturday of each month at the Eldridge Medic Station.

January birthdays were celebrated with cake, collecting $24 for the education fund. John Maxwell has organized Rotary Reads at John Glenn Elementary school in Donahue, IA for the next 13 Tuesdays. He is seeking volunteers. Kelly Meyer announced that the Special Olympics for basketball skills will be Saturday January 17, in the small gym at North Scott High School. Opening ceremonies are at 9 A.M. Just show up to volunteer!

Regan Johnson told why she joined Rotary and what Rotary means to her. She said she was a tag-along, as a child, to her Dad when he attended Rotary. Then when she became a realtor, she asked Kim Wilkins if she could tag-along with him to attend Rotary. She loves being involved with the projects that include children, such as the Harvest Party and Rotary Reads.

Julia Blazevic, Tom Bylund, Jeremy Kaiser and Tom Messer were given their blue member badges at the meeting. Eric Langan was the sergeant and made them each pay one dollar. He collected $39, also fining the pajama party attendees for not inviting him. Becky Bray gave $5 to promote Overall Women, a conference for today's rural woman.

Guests present were: Michael Ryan, guest of Becky Bray, Joy Rashe, guest of Mike Thavenet, Maureen Baldwin, guest of Teresa Paper, Deanna Jensen and Margo McInnis, guests of Mary Ellen Chamberlin. Also, Dave Schnorrenberg, guest of James Patten and Alfred Ramirez guest of Bill Tubbs.
