FRIDAY—AT THE STEEPLEGATE

Club Business Meeting Membership Meeting

Becky
Bray

Becky Wants to ask you.

Are you from the Greatest Generation, a Baby Boomer or an 'Xer'? What about the people you sit with on Fridays at Rotary or work with on committees? As part of the membership meeting next Friday, we'll be learning a little about each other and the generations we come from. Becky Bray will share some information on traits and trends of the variety of generations we all come from. What do we have in common – what makes us different? Come and learn about yourself and your Rotarian friends.

Club Business Meeting. What does this mean? As you can well imagine there are a myriad of small items to take care of, and they accumulate. We will handle these.

Paul Harris Fellows. We have three of these to award.

Please be present!!

Jeff Miller, Hank Runge, & Richard Horst

New Member Procedures

Several questions have been asked about how to bring in a new member, so here goes.

1. A new member may be proposed, by a current member, to the club secretary, and therefore the board, before or after they have attended a meeting. It is asked that this be kept confidential. If you need help in getting them to come, submit their name and ask for help.
2. The Board acts on this proposal.
3. After the person has attended three meetings, and the sponsor has talked to them about requirements and responsibilities, they are passed on to the classification committee for approval.
4. After approval from the Classification Committee, the proposed member is returned to the Board for final approval.
5. A letter of intent is issued to the prospective member, spelling out financial and attendance requirements expected.
6. When this signed letter is returned, the prospective member will be published in the club newsletter and seven days is allowed for comment by the members.
7. The new member is eligible for induction at the next available club meeting
8. This procedure is spelled out in the club "By Laws," which follow Rotary International "By Laws".

SPECIAL OLYMPICS – Track & Field

Every spring, the East Area Spring Games for the special education students are held at North Scott Schools. These Special Olympic Games are attended by many students from the eastern section of Iowa. Therefore, many volunteers are needed to help organize and keep track of the participants.

Kelly Meyer is the chair person from North Scott Rotary and she needs volunteers. Yellow sign up sheets are available at the Friday meetings. Please consider volunteering your time. THANK YOU'S RECEIVED

Dear North Scott Rotary,
 Keeping children safe, that's the goal that brings us together. We are so appreciative of your generous donation to the 2009 Lifesaver Campaign. As a Corporate Sponsor, you are playing a large role in helping us raise the $100,000 needed to meet this year's campaign goal. And all the funds will stay right here in the Quad Cities to help local children stay safe. Each year, the Child Abuse Council serves 1800 children through programs such as our New Parent Support Services and our Children's Trauma Services. Our goal is to keep kids safe by preventing child abuse. With your financial investment we are making great strides.
 Warmest wishes,
 Rondi A. Doyle, Child Abuse Council
 Director of Community Relations
 (Donated: $1000 to Lifesaver Campaign)

Dear North Scott Rotarians:
 On behalf of myself and the D6000 2009 District Committee, I want to express our heartfelt gratitude for your contribution toward keeping our Conference registration cost lower than it has been in many years. Because of your generosity, we are able to keep this year's registration fee at $100 for early registration. What a joy to be able to offer the District Conference at a rate that every Rotarian should be able to meet. We look forward to seeing you in Ankeny on April 24-25. You have helped to.....MAKE DREAMS REAL

LARRY G. PATTEN

Living as A Champion

Larry Patten, founder of World Leadership Institute, was proudly introduced on Friday by his son, North Scott Rotarian, James Patten. Larry has written a book entitled "Living as A Champion". He says that achieving success only comes when you take time to define what success means to you. Discovery helps you focus on six critical areas of your life. Direction sets a personal framework for your life that will keep you aligned to achieve the outcomes you desire. Development provides the power necessary to reach your desired outcomes.

Mr. Patten has directed Champion boot camps and given many lectures and seminars on his beliefs. Until January 2009, he was the president of Palmer College. He says that since he stepped down, the Quad City Times has not had so much to write about. Previous to that he made phonograph records, was the CEO of Iowa Public Television, worked for Teleconnect and Kirkwood College. He has a true passion for improving people's lives through his vast understanding of what makes change happen.

Gary Lynch presided over the business meeting. He gave $10 to the educational fund because he was glad to be back on his feet. Gary & Lorraine just returned from a trip to Aruba, where Gary spent 6 days in the intensive care unit. He had the flu when he left town and it took a severe turn for the worst when he left town.

Seventy five members and guests were present on Friday. Guests included: Olivia Pereira, Youth Exchange student, Rotarian Becky Eiding from the Davenport club, Mary Macumber-Schmidt, guest of Anita Wubbena and Jeremy Kaiser and Mardy Morrow, guest of Jody Johnston-Mohr.

Walt Bredbeck asked for the member's help in entertaining the GSE inbound team from Taiwan. They will arrive in time to attend the April 17th club meeting and stay until April 20, when they move on to the Iowa City area. Dr. Dennis Rucker bragged about the North Scott music students and told about the youth club that the Eldridge Lions club has formed. (Ken Tank's grand-daughter is the president of it).

John Maxwell was the sergeant of arms and raised $45 in fun fines. He fined Bill Tubbs for all his advertising of the approaching Chordbusters concert and the full page ads in the North Scott Press. Also members who had ads, Jeff Miller & Kim Wilkins. He fined Bob Fox for looking like Alice Cooper and Rich Golinghorst for buying 2 new farms.

Gary encouraged members to attend the approaching President Elect Training, the District Assembly and the District Conference. All dates can be found on the calendar of events. Contact Gary, Chuck or Dennis if you have questions about these functions.
