FRIDAY—AT THE STEEPLEGATE

Tracey Kuehl Director Bettendorf Family Museum

Tracey Kuehl... native of Scott County, graduated from Pleasant Valley High School and Augustana College with a BA in Biology.

Has been the director of the Family Museum since August 1991 and had the privilege of overseeing the consolidation of two former city departments... the Children's Museum and the Center for the Cultural Arts to form the Family Museum of Arts and Science in 1995, and the design, construction of the current facility in 1997.

Previous work included serving as a marketing manager for the Iowa Department of Economic Development, Division of Tourism 1989 - 1991; executive director of the Davenport Convention and Visitors Bureau 1985- 1989; marketing director for General Growth Companies, Duck Creek Plaza 1980 - 1985.

Married to a great guy, John Hintze and we live on my family's farm just north of Bettendorf with numerous four-legged "children".

In my spare time, I enjoy gardening, planting and caring for all types of growing things, reading (especially history of all types) and making the most of time with family and friends!

The 4 Way Test Of the things we THINK SAY or DO

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOOD WILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

YOUTH DAY

One hundred and one members, youth guests, parents, grandparents and visiting Rotarians attended the yearly meeting to honor our graduates, scholarships winners, RYLA attendees and exchange students.

Bert Vigen introduced the three scholarship winners. They are Hailee Gehrls and Ken Krebs from North Scott and Kathleen Hoil from Assumption. Their information appears elsewhere in this publication. All three were present, along with their parents.

Nancy Glawe introduced the six students present that attended Rotary Youth Leadership Award (RYLA) Day at Camp Dodge in April. They were: Audrey McDermott, Travis Dierickx and Olivia Pereira from North Scott High School. Also attending was: Joe Kern from Davenport North, Federico Presti from Davenport West and Mary Agnoli from Davenport Assumption. Most of their parents were also present. Audrey was the only one brave enough to give some comments about the day long camp. She said that no matter what, you need to be prepared for what lies ahead of you. Be sure and plan for the future, Audrey said. Nancy presented them with certificates of completion.

Dennis Peterson also presented Olivia and Federico, current exchange students, for year end comments. They thanked the club for the continuing support that they receive. They appreciate the functions that they are able to participate in and the financial and parental support that they receive from the club.

Randy Zobrist was the sergeant and collected $97 for the educational fund. Dick Cole, Rob White and Tom Messer all had to pay for the pictures that appeared in the North Scott Press the past week. (Jamie Burt will pay next time he shows up). James Patten gave $40 for the credit hours that he took to graduate from St. Ambrose. Jeremy Kaiser also recently graduated from St. Ambrose.

Additional guests present were Rotarians: Charles Sleichter from Rapids City, IL and Gary Sosniecki from Vanoalia, MO. Rob Arth, guest of Gary Lynch, Rich Ketcham, guest of David Schnorrenberg and Annette Tank, guest of Ken Tank were also present. Additional youth guests were Nolan Petersen, grandson of Marian Petersen, Rebecca Mattke, granddaughter of Keith Mattke, Torrie Steger, granddaughter of Dick Cole, Justin Huettman, grandson of Jerry Hansen, and Melanie Blazevic, daughter of Julia Blazevic.
