Sincerely,
Hailee Gehrls

CLAUDIA ROBINSON - GILDA'S CLUB

Claudia gave an informative program about the local Gilda's Club in Davenport. It is truly a place of Cancer Support for the Whole Family. Gilda's Club is named in memory of Saturday Night Live's comedienne, Gilda Radner. She died of ovarian cancer in 1989. She once said that cancer gave her "membership to an elite club I'd rather not belong to", which is where the name "Gilda's Club" originated. There are 28 counties served in Iowa and Illinois by Gilda's Club.

Gilda's Club is not a sad and depressing place. It is a support group of people with a staff of only five. It is open from 8 A.M. to 9 P.M. For some members who come here, this is the only family that they have. Everything at Gilda's Club is free to the cancer patients and their families. The average donation that they receive is a mere $25.00. They have received enough $25 donations to stay open for 10 years. Every week day has a full schedule of classes and workshops offered to the membership. They offer art workshops, cooking workshops, wellness group meetings, knitting and crocheting classes, yoga sessions, sign language, dancing and card clubs. The list continues on. For more information go to www.gildasclubqc.org.

Seventy one people attended on Friday, including guests Anastasaya Pasheyeva, daughter of Serge Pasheev, Grant Fahrenkrog, son of Steve Fahrenkrog, T.J. Schneckloth, guest of John Maxwell and Olivia Pereira and Federico Presti, current exchange students. Also visiting were Rotarians, Jake Jacks from the Iowa Quad City Club and Gene Miller from the Bettendorf Club. Birthday cake was served to all and a $25 donation was made to the education fund.

Nancy Glawe gave a member testimonial. She gave her personal history and her involvement with the Rotary Club. She encouraged everyone to be active on the committees that they are assigned to serve on. Deanna Jensen was awarded her permanent Blue Badge. Others to receive them were not present at the meeting.

Gene Hoth told about the money raising activity available for the club at the Mississippi Fair with the Per Mar Security Staff. We will receive more details soon and sign up's will be available. The June 26 meeting will be held at the NEW Handicapped Development Center on North Brady Street. We will have a catered meal and tours of the new building.

Mike Thavenet was the sergeant and raised $30 in fines. First he fined Bill Tubbs for the number of sheets in the NSP. Ken Tank and Don Brandt had on matching plaid shirts and Scott Case and Steve Powell were blamed for passing to the corner. Harlan played with his cake and Amanda Wheeler must learn not to be late, especially as a new member. Bob Shipman was welcomed back, after a five month absence and had to pay to advertise his newly formed company.
