RIVER BANDITS TICKETS AND BANDIT BUCKS FOR SALE

Please plan to attend and help support the River Bandits Baseball Game on Monday, August 17. Take your co-workers, friends, neighbors and your families. The tickets sell for $7.00 each and the Bandit Bucks for $1.00 each. The club gets back $3.00 from each ticket sale for Polio eradication and 50 cents on each Bandit Buck. The following members have made a commitment for the game by picking up tickets to sell, give away to clients & customers or use themselves. Please join these members to make another successful Baseball Game Outing. Our club sold the most tickets last year of all the 12 clubs involved, therefore raised the most money for polio. Over $3500.00 Let's do it again!

YOUNG PROFESSIONALS SOUGHT FOR ROTARY GOODWILL EXCHANGE TO AUSTRALIA

Iowa Rotarians seek four outstanding young professionals, ages 25-40, to be part of a Group Study Exchange to Australia from Feb. 26 to March 26, 2010.

Rotary District 6000 will send a team of four non-Rotarians, plus a Rotarian team leader, to a district in southeast Australia. The purpose of GSE is to promote international understanding and goodwill through person-to-person contact. While abroad, team members stay in Rotarians' homes, give presentations, meet their professional counterparts, and experience the host country's customs, vocations and lifestyles.

Our selection committee is looking for exemplary ambassadors of their country, state and profession. Team members should have strong communication skills, experience working in a team and ability to cope in an unfamiliar environment over 30 often arduous days. International travel experience is a plus.

Here are answers to basic questions about the exchange:

WHO'S ELIGIBLE? Participants must be employed full-time in a recognized business or profession, and live or be employed in Rotary District 6000, which comprises most of the southern Iowa south of Highway 30, including Ames, Marshalltown and Clinton (but not Cedar Rapids).

WHERE'S THE EXCHANGE? Team members will travel to District 9790 near Melbourne (portions of eastern Victoria and southern New South Wales). For more information on the district, see www.rotary9790.org.au.

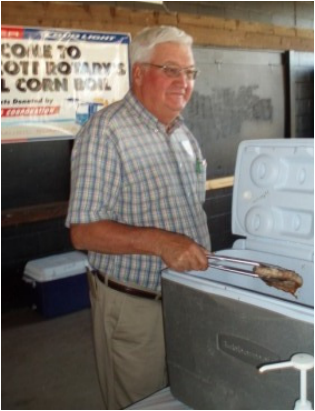

WHO PAYS FOR THE TRIP? The Rotary International Foundation provides a round-trip air ticket, and local Rotarians in the host communities provide meals, lodging and group travel. Team members pay for personal and incidental expenses, including passports.

HOW DO I APPLY? Applications are available from a local Rotary Club president; the GSE outbound committee chairman Lynn Hicks, (515) 556-0747 or lynhyx@gmail.com; or the Rotary district web page at www.rotary6000.org (Look on the left side under "Foundation" and "Group Study Exchange") Completed applications must be endorsed by the sponsoring clubs and submitted to Hicks by Aug. 14, 2009. All applicants must be available for an interview on the weekend of Aug. 29-30 to qualify for this award.

WHO LEADS THE TRIP? Rita Perea of the Greater Des Moines Emerging Leaders Rotary Club was chosen as team leader. She will assist in the selection and preparation of team members.

FOR MORE INFORMATION: Contact Lynn Hicks, (515) 556-0747 or lynhyx@gmail.com.

PERFECT NIGHT FOR A CORN BOIL!

John Maxwell and his committee pull off another wonderful meal!

Sixty five North Scott Rotarians and about 200 additional guests enjoyed the annual Corn Boil held at the Mississippi Valley Fair Grounds, on Thursday evening, July 30. The weather was mild (for July) and John and Lisa had all the details worked out in advance. With Jim Rastrelli's notes in tow and John's co-chair experience, John and Lisa worked out many of the details and committee assignments on their agricultural trip to the Dakota's the week previous to the corn boil.

Seven hundred ears of corn, six hundred desserts (made by Lisa), over 250 cans of beer and 250 sodas and bottled water were consumed. Also 250 pork chops, 50 hot dogs and 40 pounds of cucumber salad.

Applesauce, pasta salad and fresh sliced tomatoes completed the fantastic meal. The Scott County Pork Producers cooked the chops to perfection, and were guests of the club.

Adam Kerns gave the invocation. John Maxwell thanked his committee and President, Chuck Briegel encouraged members to support the River Bandits Baseball game and Polio Plus challenge on Monday, August 17. Tickets and Bandit Bucks are now available from Dennis Peterson. They will be available at the meetings of August 7 and August 14. Also, available most other days, just call Dennis at 285-8584 or 508-7581.
