FRIDAY—AT THE STEEPLEGATE

Membership Day Kellie Esters and Her Committee

Bring potential members on Friday! They will get a chance to meet Rotarians and find out what the North Scott Rotary is all about. We'll have some fun looking at our activities and sharing with our guests all the community service and special events that we do in our club. Potential members are guests of the club and get a free meal. Don't forget – The Rotarian bring the most guests will receive a $25 Gift Certificate! Prospective members will see the fun and service opportunities they can be involved in if they choose to join.

Wapsi Harvest Party

Our annual party for the youth of Davenport and this year Rock Island was held in conjunction with the Davenport & Rock Island Rotary Clubs. 300 plus kids were transported, fed with hot dogs and s'mores. They were entertained with the animals, corn maze, etc, and all got to take home a pumpkin.

The Kids

Cody and Kim Allen feed a hungry daughter

Adam and Kim Kerns ran the chow line for the animals, much to the kid's delight.

Auction 2009

Approximately 242 Rotarians and guests gathered at the Starlight Ballroom, Mississippi Valley Fair Grounds for North Scott Rotary's annual auction. The change of venue continues to work well for all. All of the Silent Auction items were around the outside of the room, which was arranged with round tables set for 8. Some filled a table with 9 people.

Food was prepared by Riefe's, and served buffet style, with many salad items, potatoes, vegetables, and choice of chicken or pork.

Many comments were heard with the idea that they would not need to eat tomorrow. They were too full tonight.

The auction was lead by volunteer auctioneer Scott Bowman, assisted by the committee. Callers in the audience were Mike Thavenet, Eric Langan, and John Maxwell. They put on their normal comedy act to the enjoyment of the crowd.
