The 4 Way Test

Of the things we THINK SAY or DO

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOOD WILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL CORN BOIL!! July 29, 2010

John Maxwell, Lisa and his corn boil committee organized another extremely successful corn boil at the Mississippi Valley Fairgrounds. The morning started at 8 A.M. in Rich Golinghorst's corn patch behind the Walcott cemetery. Eighteen corn pickers showed up and made quick work of preparing 1000 ears of corn for the evening meal. Three members of the Scott County Pork Producers started cooking 300 pork chops at around 4 P.M. Corn cooking started shortly after that. Lisa and committee members dished up Lisa's delicious desserts into individual servings in preparation for the serving of about 275 people that started at 6:00 P.M. Plenty of salads, applesauce and beverages were available to all. A special thanks to Duncan Cameron and Vanguard Distributing for the donation of Beer. Also to Rich for donation of corn!

John Pheiffer gave the invocation and President Charlie Jones welcomed everyone. He thanked John Maxwell and all of his committee members for the hours of preparation for the evening. Sixty four North Scott Rotarians attended with numerous family members and friends present. Other (known) Rotary clubs represented were Bettendorf, Davenport, Iowa Quad Cities, Moline, IL and Huron, South Dakota. Arthur Camara Souza, Youth Exchange student from 2 years ago, and his sister Andressa, from Brazil were present. They are visiting past host families, Kalainoffs and Bylunds and various sites in the United States for 3 weeks. They are on winter break from high school and college.

Remember to come to the baseball game on Wednesday evening August 4, as the Quad City River Bandits play the Clinton Lumber Kings. Charlie Jones or another North Scott Rotary member (or 2) will be standing near the gate area with tickets to purchase (if you don't already have some!) If you are not at the Fair, come on over and join us at the game. Only $7 per seat. A portion of ticket sales will go towards the club's yearly pledge to Polio Plus. REMEMBER - NO MEETING ON FRIDAY, AUGUST 6.
