THANK YOU's RECEIVED

In Memory of Dorothy:

Time remembered is grief forgotten. May the music play on in the memories of all those who knew her.....

We all know Rotary held a special place in Dorothy's heart. Thank you for the very special arrangement honoring Dorothy.

Sincerely,
The White Family

North Scott Rotary:

George LOVED North Scott Rotary. My brother and I are grateful that he found true fellowship in his activities with the group and are so honored that he was remembered with scholarship donations in his name. Education was a priority of his for community and he would be so grateful.

It seems it was a bad week for Rotary with the passing of George and Dorothy. I've heard that Dad was "toasted" in Eldridge from my brother and husband, but if the dark room still exists, make it a double this week. Please make sure Dorothy's is done in a way fitting a true LADY, for that she truly was.

Sincerely,
Karen (White) Shirk and Rod White

What is new with North Scott Rotary?

Fifty eight people were present on Friday, January 13th, to get the latest scoop on what's new with the working committee's of North Scott Rotary. Julia Blazevic explained how the Public Relations Committee is getting information out to the media about our activities and projects. It has been very effective with the funding requests for distribution of our auction funds. Lorraine Lynch is chairing this committee and asks that each committee that has an item that needs a press release, to prepare their own write up of 2-3 paragraphs about 10 days before the release date.

Dr. Anita Wubbena has given the website a new look! Jeremy Kaiser has agreed to maintain the Face book portion. She has added pictures, newsletters, scholarship application, funding request application, prospective member application; the list goes on and on. There is also a member's only section, accessible by using your personal password. Anita projected samples during the meeting so that members could better understand how to navigate the website.

Sheila Volrath gave a Finance report on current funds the club has and how they are invested for the best earnings. She also touched on the School Shop that provides items for less fortunate students, in our Rotary coverage area, north of the Duck Creek.

Gene Hoth announced that the club can work at the Mississippi Valley Fair and will be strongly promoted June 1. Kelly Meyer told about Special Olympics and Paul Seelau the scholarship process. If anyone has any questions, please contact the committee chair people.

Two more new members joined on Friday, Gene Meyer from Walcott, sponsored by Rich Golinghorst and Abbie Timmerman, sponsored by Mike Thavenet. Dr. Anita gave the induction charge and welcomed them with a dollar fine as she was the sergeant of arms, also. $35 total was collected from people that do NOT enjoy the snow.

The only guest present was Bill Rossow, guest of Kim Wilkins. Bill turned in an application for membership on Friday. He has been a frequent visitor with Kim. Mark Huse announced that he has taken a new job in Maine and this was his last Friday. He has enjoyed his short 10 month membership in Rotary and the new friends he made while here.
