Last Week

Last Week – Dan Dolan for Congress - June 1, 2012

Sixty eight members and guests were present on Friday, June 1 at the Steeplegate to hear about local businessman, Dan Dolan, Republican candidate for Congress. Dan believes three things qualify someone for public service. They are: love for family and country, commitment to values and real life experience. Dan is married to his high school sweetheart and they have 5 children. He has worked around the world on drilling rigs, is a certified electrician and has been building and renovating home in the greater Quad City area since 1991. He has seven subdivisions in four counties and has created over 1000 jobs in those areas.

Guests on Friday were: Dan Martin, guest of Dick Cole, John Archer, guest of Glen Keppy, Terrye Kishiue, guest of Jody Johnston-Mohr and Mike Little, Cedar Rapids, Research tracker for the Iowa Democratic Party. June Birthdays were celebrated and $15 was collected for cake. John Maxwell was the sergeant and collected $18 in fines, by asking members why they were absent two weeks ago.

Anita Wubbena, Dick Cole and Dixie Kurtz all went on the Honor Flight in late May. Anita and Dick both said it was a very moving experience. Unfortunately, according to Bert Vigen, no more guardians are needed at the current time. Scott Kurtz mentioned the interview in the QC Times and Bettendorf News about Mikel Ursúa, current exchange student from Vigo, Spain. He has completed playing soccer and has “graduated” from Bettendorf High School. He is now travelling to the Black Hills, and then leaving for the 28 day, Rotary sponsored trip around the United States.
