River Bandits - Polio Plus Fundraiser Sunday July 8th 5:00 PM River Bandits vs Lumber Kings

The combined Rotary Clubs of the Quad Cities and Surrounding Areas will once again meet at the Modern Woodmen Park to cheer on the River Bandits baseball team.

Once again this will be our MAJOR FUNDRAISER for Polio Plus for the Year. Each Rotary Club receives a portion of each $7 ticket sold and a portion of all $1 Bandit Bucks purchased by their Club.

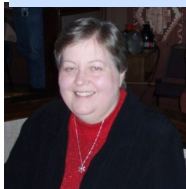

Support North Scott Rotary's effort to raise money to FINALLY ERADICATE POLIO from the world. WE ARE THIS CLOSE to eliminating this dreaded disease.

When buying tickets keep in mind that each ticket holder will probably spend $8 to $10 in food and drinks so buy Bandit Bucks accordingly. If you spend money at the Ball Park without OUR Bandit Bucks we earn nothing. Bandit Bucks are good all this season, this year, if you have any left, or are going to future games. SCOOBY DOO will be there. Many other activities for the kids.

Do not go to the Steeplegate this Friday

Go to Scott County Extension 875 Tanglefoot Ln, Bettendorf

Join Becky Bray this Friday for a look at their activities.

Becky Bray says, "It will just be me giving some information on the variety of topics and programs that happen at Extension. We'll have some door prizes and a few displays along with a meal from Jeff's out of Durant. I'll keep it fairly short since some are coming such a distance - others can stay longer if they want any information."

Scott County Extension, a part of Iowa State University Extension and Outreach turns 100 years old this year. It has a rich history in serving farm families but also offers much to small town and urban audiences. Come and find out what they have to offer you! You might be surprised to learn that you have probably already benefitted from this organization. Becky will give a quick overview of the kinds of information and services available to all citizens in Scott County. There will be a meal catered from Jeff's Market, some door prizes and a chance to learn about a resource that strives to provide the kind of information that people will need for the next 100 years. If you're interested, you are welcome to tour the gardens surrounding the office or bring questions you'd like to have answered.

LAST WEEK - Family Picnic - June 10, 2012

Twenty five members and twenty nine guests attended the Family Picnic at Scott County Park on Sunday, June 10. We were a little short on kids, but we had plenty of food! Pulled pork sandwiches and hot dogs were catered in by the Culinary Kids of Family Resources in Davenport. Numerous salads, fresh fruit and several chocolate cakes and brownies were in abundance.

Assorted lawn games entertained the families. Special guests were Duncan and Diane Cameron and Ann and Jeff Hanson. President Becky thanked Angie Reese and Jan Trimble for organizing the event and reminded everyone that the next meeting is at her office on Friday.
