FRIDAY—AT THE STEEPLEGATE

Jennifer Rice

Program Coordinator at the Scott County Sheriff's Office

Jennifer Rice is the Program Coordinator at the Scott County Sheriff's Office and has an undergraduate degree in Forensic Psychology and a Master degree in Criminal Justice. She is currently working on a Ph.D. in Criminal Justice from Capella University. Along with Program Coordinator Dr. Paul Elias, Jennifer manages over 90 professional and non-professional volunteers who provide programs that focus on the risks and needs of the inmate population. Some of the programs are faith based classes, Alcoholics Anonymous, Narcotics Anonymous, Domestic Violence, Anger Management, GED, Literacy, and Parenting Skills, just to name a few. Jennifer collaborates with community based agencies connecting inmates with community resources. Jennifer Rice will discuss: Why do people come to jail? Who are Scott County Jail inmates? What are Scott County inmates' risks and needs? How do jail programs help Scott County citizens?

The Scott County Jail (SCJ) Programs research project began in September, 2009 with the goal of identifying effective programs designed to benefit inmates and reduce rates of recidivism. 320 SCJ male inmates held and released from general population were involved in the study. Each inmate was interviewed using The Inmate Interview Guide developed by the program staff consisting of Level of Service Inventory-Revised-Screening Version (LSI-R-SV) and other variables tied to recidivism. Recidivism is defined as the length of time to re-arrest. Results from the inmate interview suggest that programs related to improving interpersonal relationships, addressing drug/alcohol abuse, completing education (GED) and changing criminal thinking are significantly related to reduced recidivism. Inmates' involvement in all types of jail programs were significantly correlated to each other suggesting that inmates who participate in one program are more likely to participate in others at high levels indicating the effectiveness of programs in general.

Of the 320 participants 80% (256) participated in programs.

Of the 320 participants 101 were in jail for the first time, while 39 had not been arrested for three years or more years.

MEAL PRICE INCREASE

Due to an increase in the meal price from the Steeplegate, the new price per meal is $12.00 for visiting Rotarians, guests and for members, who pay the inactive membership rate. This is the first increase from the Steeplegate in over five years. This will go into effect Friday, July 22, 2011.

All meals for every meeting are included in the dues of the full pay members. This is also the reason for the $15 increase per quarter in dues from $140 to $155. If you have any questions, contact Becky or Dennis.

Meeting Notes: Harold
Braren: Bix History

Fifty eight members and guests heard many historical facts about Bix Beiderbecke, the second cousin of Harold Braren, the speaker on Friday. Richard Horst is a huge Bix fan and he arranged for Harold and Mike Boyler, President of the Bix Beiderbecke Society to be present on Friday. Other guests were Davenport Rotarian, Ralph Heninger, Marcia Brandt, guest of Don Brandt and Roger Schiele, nephew of Jack Schinckel.

August 6, 2011 will be the 80th anniversary of Bix death. The Bix festival is being held during that time this year, August 4-7. It is only a few weeks away and will be the 40th Bix Beiderbecke Jazz festival. This year promises to be a grand event with terrific bands, informative seminars and special events. The historic Hotel Blackhawk will be the center of the festival, along with the COL Ballroom and LeClaire Park. Seventeen bands are scheduled to perform, including the Youth Band, which is made up of local junior high and high school musicians. Other sites include RME, Presbyterian Church, Palmer Hall and Oakdale Memorial Gardens at Bix grave. All info can be accessed at www.bixsociety.org.

Members were encouraged to sign up for the corn boil on July 28, less than 2 weeks away. This is a family function; all guests are $10 each. Children under 10 are free. If you are on the committee, you have received a phone call from John Maxwell with your assignment(s). If you need to reach John, call his cell, 505-1652. Corn picking details will be announced this Friday.

Mike Thavenet announced that Joy Schneckloth had a baby boy on July 14. Rich Golinghorst also announced that Glen Keppy has had a hip replacement. John Maxwell was the sergeant and collected $20. He picked on Kim Wilkins, for being a hot shot at the Moonlight Chase and on Bill Tubbs for being gone to receive his Golden Quill award. Also Lori Rochau for forgetting to silence her phone and Mardy Morrow for asking if Dennis & Deb Peterson were brother & sister.

The 4 Way Test

Of the things we THINK SAY or DO

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOOD WILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
