Special Olympic is also a Major part of our Community Needs Outreach with a support of $3000 given Annually. This is given through the Birdies for Charities event, which increases the amount finally given to this, our favorite charity. Below are sign ups to date, I know this list will grow.

The 4 Way Test Of the things we THINK SAY or DO

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOOD WILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?

LAST WEEK

LAST WEEK – January 25, 2013 – Christine Garrow; Youth Librarian; Scott County Library

Only fifty attended on Friday, with one guest, former member, Steve Swisher. President John Maxwell welcomed Ken Tank and Leroy Paustian back from their 3 week cruise. Glen Keppy left this past weekend and will be gone a month, doing Rotary work in Uganda, Africa. He will continue the agricultural work of Merle Anderson and visit God's Mercy Orphanage Center with George Ntibarikure, who was a recent speaker at North Scott Rotary and a guest in Merle's home.

Christine Garrow was the speaker on Friday. She is the Scott County Youth Librarian and helps children gain knowledge before they enter school. She hosts 5 story times per week at the Eldridge library location. She also travels to elementary schools and other locations in the county to promote her programs. This year she is the Iowa co-chair of the Battle of the Books, for grades 4-6. She plans all the youth programs and also works closely with the teen librarian. She has many hats, including purchasing new books and always looking for the best price. She designs the summer reading program and encourages attendance. In Rotary, she is the chairman of the youth support committee and co chair of the literacy committee. Currently she is scheduling members to read at Fillmore School in Davenport and John Glenn in Donahue.
