NS Rotary Volunteers at Eldridge Moonlight Chase

We continue our volunteer work at last weekends Eldridge Days organized by the Eldridge Chamber of Commerce. This is headed by Rotarian Carolyn Scheibe. Shown are the helpers manning a water stop during the race. Other members served in race registration, and many volunteers along and at the finish line of the race. This is a yearly event and NS Rotary has a long history of helping.

Dr Anita Wubbena organized all the volunteers and supplied the pictures. Thank You

LAST WEEK

Last Week – Dougal Nelson – July 20, 2012

Blue Badges were awarded on Friday to Dougal Nelson, Seth Porter and Patrick Olsen. Assignments were reviewed for the Mississippi Valley Fair and the Corn Boil. Dr. Anita reported that the Moonlight Chase volunteer water station was a success and several newer members found out how much fun it was. Jeff Helms reminded members that the Golf Outing will be Friday, September 14.

Guests were Bettendorf Rotarian George Daugherty and Davenport Rotarian Ralph Heninger. Other guests were: Nancy Case, Kieran Connolly and Mark Bray. Angela Case gave $20 to the educational fund, as her daughter Peyton had been at a weeklong mission trip in MN. Steve Suiter gave $25 in memory of his Aunt Lois. Brad Burt did a great job as the first time sergeant of arms. He collected $75 and fined Steve Powell for a comment made a year ago on Brad's wedding day.

Sixty one total people attended the Vocational program given by Dougal Nelson with the Habitat of Humanity. 75 homes have been built in the Quad Cities since 1993. Habitat holds the interest free mortgage for the families that purchase them, only 2 have been foreclosed on.
