LAST WEEK

Last Week – Annette Snyder– August 24, 2012

Sixty five members and guests were present on August 24. Bill Rossow and Greg Schaapveld received their permanent blue badges, for completing the new member requirements. Upcoming events of the Golf Outing and Auction were discussed by Jeff Helms and Jim Koehler, chairmen of these events. Anita encouraged members to continue to send cards to Walt Bredbeck at his new residence in West Des Moines.

Mr. Kent Ryan, principal of Fillmore Elementary School, Davenport, was present for lunch and a school adoption committee meeting. The various areas that the club wants to help the school with were discussed. Lorraine Lynch is the chairman of this project and is available for suggestions and volunteers. Dennis & Deb Peterson have already delivered a large amount of needed school supplies to Fillmore.

Annette Snyder was the speaker on August 24. She owns The Employment Source in Bettendorf and aids her business clients with finding “the best suited” employee for the job opening that they might have. She says if you do your own hiring, always check references and do background checks for criminal activities.

Patrick Olsen was the sergeant of arms and collected $18 in fines. Other guests were: Tom Koska, guest of Gene Hoth and the pianist of the day, Bonnie Walling.
