THIS FRIDAY - Third Annual Walter Fahrenkrog Golf Outing

Our third Annual outing in memory of Charter Member Walter Fahrenkrog will be held at Spring Brook Country Club in Dewitt, Iowa. Walt was instrumental in organizing this event during his many years in our club. His wife, Jan, and his son and daughters will all be in attendance and playing golf.

Join us before golf for our traditional great lunch served by Spring Brook. It will again be a choice of Steak or Chicken sandwich with all sides provided.

We will have a shotgun start for the first nine holes, and all whom care to, may finish the 18 holes at no extra charge. Many prizes have been arranged by the committee, along with the traditional rivalries, and a few ringers.

Mulligans may be purchased if you think you need them.

Last Week – John DeDoncker– September 7, 2012

Mr. John DeDoncker with THE National Bank gave a fast and informative speech about today's economy. The National debt is currently 16 trillion dollars, which is $51,000 per person. He says that it appears that the economy is on the way up. From 1901 to 1973, the United States had very little debt. John was introduced by Denise Vastine, daughter of Jack Schinckel. Denise works for John and was present to introduce him, as Jack and Jean travel in Germany.

Steve Suiter presided over the business meeting in John's absence. September birthdays were celebrated and $28 was collected for cake. Jim Smith was the sergeant, and was determined to find something to fine everyone a dollar for. He was successful, as $88 was collected in fines, with 66 people in attendance on Friday.

Two former North Scott Rotarians were guests: PDG John Hall, from Fairport, PA and Brian Roesler. Tom Koska with Per Mar Security, guest of Gene Hoth, was also in attendance.
