Rotary Club of North Scott

We achieved a very successful Auction 2012 at the Starlight Ballroom, Mississippi Valley Fairgrounds on Thursday October 25, 2012

280 plus Rotarians and friends bid on over 170 items.

We had 130 silent bid items and 40 Live items, plus Raffles.

Scott Bowman once again was auctioneer. He and his father Ron

Bowman have been doing this for us for 40 plus years

All of this is what lets us support all of our grants to the community and all of our Scholarships awards.

Preliminary Auction Results

Silent Auction	6,433.00	50/50 Raffle	651.00
Live Auction	16,395.00	Green Bay Tickets	600.00

The infamous Rotary Boxer shorts once again brought over $1000.

They are modeled here by Rotarian Mike Thavenet.

The working part of the Auction. Clerk is Rotarian Tom Messer and Auctioneer Scott Bowman.

A little friendly persuasion always helps the cause. Ask Mike Reese how persuasive Eric Langan can be. Mike is the husband of Rotarian Angela Reese.

ROTARY READS FOR FILLMORE SCHOOL

Christine Garrow has received some reading times from the staff at Fillmore Elementary, Davenport. The Rotary volunteers would sit with an individual child and help them sound out words and sentences in books. A lot of these children do not receive any help at home. The grade levels (so far) are: First, Second and Fourth. BUT FIRST: Christine needs your completed Volunteer form, for the Davenport Schools, so they can do a background check. The form must be complete with social security number and a copy of your current driver's license or passport. These can be returned to Christine at the Eldridge Library or at any meeting. Dennis and Lorraine Lynch will also accept them. Signups will begin November 2, so please, get your volunteer form completed, so we are ready to go with volunteers.
