THIS FRIDAY AT THE STEEPLEGATE

Maggie Atkinson,
Program Director

Tom Bley
Executive Director

Camp Shalom has been a part of Maggie's life for as long as she can remember. Having attended camp as a child she knew what a special place Camp Shalom was. During college, she spent several summers working at Camp Shalom, where she discovered her passion for youth ministry. Following graduation, she was given a chance to resurrect an ailing youth program as youth director of a Lutheran church in Independence, Iowa. This was a natural stepping stone to her current position as Program Director at Camp Shalom. As program director she wears many hats in creating a life changing experience for campers. In addition to creating all of the programming for each years camp season, she is responsible for hiring and training the summer staff.

Maggie is dedicating her life to making sure Camp Shalom is a "time and place apart" for all who enter through the gates.

Tom Bley is the Executive Director of Camp Shalom Christian Camp, which has offices in Davenport and a 311 acre camp facility in Maquoketa, IA.

Tom has been a part of the wonderful ministry of Camp Shalom for many years as a camper parent, volunteer, board member, board president, and since April of 2013 as the Executive Director. Previously Tom has been involved in several business enterprises and has spent most of his life involved in sales and sales management.

Tom is a vice-chair for the Board of Directors for Handicapped Development Center, he is a member of the Board of Governors at Davenport Country Club, but most importantly he serves youth as volunteer tutor and mentor at Madison Elementary and JB Young Jr High through his church, St Paul Lutheran.

As the director of Camp Shalom Christian Camp, his passion is to provide a camp experience for young people that will leave a lifelong impression of the power of the Holy Spirit and to make this opportunity available to all youth regardless of their family's financial resources.

The Athletes are the focus of Special Olympics.

They are aided by Rotarians helping in these pictures that I can recognize Steve Suiter, Bob and Ann Bainter, Gene Meyer, Patrick Olsen & Megan, and Kelly Meyer

Thanks Anita

Arbor Day Tree Planting

We have an opportunity to plant trees for the City of Davenport again on Arbor Day (Saturday), April 26, 2014. They are planning on planting around 300 trees this year focusing in Fejervary and Garfield Parks. We would begin around 8:30 A.M. and finish around 11:00A.M. We would probably plant in Fejervary Park. The set-up would be similar to past years. They will supply shovels and gloves or bring your own. This is physical work but not too bad. Please let me know if you are interested.

Kim Wilkins kimwilkins@ruhlhomes.com or 563-370-1393 anytime. Thanks.

LAST WEEK

LAST MEETING – April 11, 2014 – Laura Swift, Speaker

Laura Swift has been an advocate for survivors of sexual violence for ten years. She has helped organize local workshops and has travelled to Chicago to attend meetings to obtain ideas for them. She works closely with at-risk girls at Family Resources. She volunteers by helping teach these young women about life skills and personal responsibility.

Sixty six attended on Friday. Rotarian guest was Dave Borcharding from the Iowa Q.C. Rotary Club. Other guests were Jeff Ashcraft, guest of Bill Tubbs and Adam Nederhoff, guest of Scott Case. Also present were Jo Mattke, Jarod Powell and Kieran Connolly.

Nathan Kessler announced the birth of his third child, Olivia Rachel, in late March. He made a donation to the education fund. John Maxwell was the sergeant and collected $35 in fines.

The thoughts and prayers of the entire club go out to Charlie Jones and his family at the loss of his Father Joseph W. Jones, 95 of Liberty, IN. He was residing in Cincinnati with his wife, Martha.

The 4 Way Test Of the things we THINK SAY or DO

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOOD WILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
