Rotary Club of North Scott Awards Four Traditional Scholarships of $2000 each.

And 2 Non Traditional Scholarships to Scott Community College Students in Recognition of Past President Gary Lynch of $1000 each. These are presented by Lorraine Lynch, his wife, in his memory.

The first traditional Scholarship is presented to a student who plans to study in the performing Art. It is the Dorothy White Scholarship, named in honor of Dorothy White, mother of Rotarian Rob White. Dorothy played the piano for our club for many years.

This recipient is Cody Birely of North Scott High School. Cody was a young Rotarian at our club, our delegate to RYLA (Rotary Youth Leadership), where he was a recipient of a Scholarship presented by Simon Estes. Cody plans to attend Wartburg College.

Nancy Glawe, Charlie Jones and Carolyn Scheibe interviewed 9 students – 2 for the Dorothy White and 7 for the remaining 3 scholarships. We chose the following:

Cody Birely (North Scott for the Dorothy White): Attending Wartburg College. Son of Eric and Heather Birely.

Caroline Emory (Davenport North) Attending University of Iowa. Daughter of Richard and Dawn Emory.

Alexander Karnish (North Scott): Attending Iowa State University, Son of Thomas and Diane Karnish.

Stephanie Konrady (North Scott): Attending University of Notre Dame. Daughter of Philip and Laura Konrady.

Tree Planting in Davenport

4 North Scott Rotarians and dozens of others helped the City of Davenport plant 160 new trees last Saturday at Fejervary Park in Davenport. Black gum, oaks, Kentucky coffee tree and others were planted to help replace the mature trees and the soon- to- be beetle infested ash trees throughout the park. Conditions were perfect- warm, dry, and sunny with timely rains to follow. The weather gods were good to us for a second straight year. Please keep the end of October-first of November available to help plant trees again in Davenport. I already volunteered us. Thanks to Rich Golinghorst, Gene Meyer, Glenn Eakes, and Kim Wilkins for helping last Saturday. Now watch your trees grow!

THIS FRIDAY AT THE STEEPLEGATE

Youth Recognition Day

Bring youth you want to recognize to lunch on Rotary this Friday. Bring Graduating children, grandchildren, nieces, nephews, or others you want to recognize. The youth are our future.

We will also be honoring our Scholarship recipients, RYLA participants, and the Junior Rotarians that attended our meetings for a month last fall and this spring.

Come Join us as we honor our Youth

LAST WEEK

LAST MEETING – May 2, 2014 – Dick Cole: American Education Today

Many thanks to Jeff Helms and Beck Bray for doing a fine job running the Rotary meeting on Friday. Dick Cole spoke about the Education methods today and how they differ from when he began teaching in 1961.

Fifty three attended on Friday and Bev Smith was a guest of Jim Smith. Birthdays were celebrated and $13 was collected for cake. Ken Tank gave $55 to the education fund for his 55th wedding anniversary. Jim Smith was the sergeant and collected $76 in fines.

The 4 Way Test
Of the things we THINK SAY or DO

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOOD WILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Representing North Scott Rotary at District Conference in Ames were (l-r): Paul Kalainoff, Steve Fahrenkrog, Dennis and Deb Peterson, Jean and Glen Keppy, Bev and Jim Smith, Linda and Bill Tubbs, and Steve Suiter.

North Scott at District Conference

May 1-3, 2014, Gateway Center, Ames, Iowa

Rotary International Vice President Anne Mathews (l) and District Governor Jacques Andrew (r) presented The Rotary Foundation's second highest international award, the Citation for Meritorious Service, to Bill Tubbs, accompanied by Linda, for Bill's volunteer service to The Rotary Foundation.

President Steve Suiter (r) congratulates Jim Smith, accompanied by Bev, who received the Paul E. Hellwege Guardian of Integrity Award. Photos by and for District 6000 and NS Rotary by Bill Tubbs

District Governor Jacques Andrew and ISU mascot "Cy" put their fingers together to show that Rotary is "this close" to eradicating polio world-wide. District Conference included good-natured banter about the Cyclones and Hawkeyes, and with the host city being Ames, included a special welcome from ISU men's basketball coach Fred Hoiberg (nicknamed "The Mayor"), substituting for the real mayor of Ames, Ann Campbell, who is recovering from a heart attack. Next year's District Conference will be April 16-18 in Iowa City.

The Rotary Club of North Scott, represented by president Steve Suiter (third from left), was recognized as an Every Rotarian Every Year club because all members contribute to The Rotary Foundation. North Scott Rotarians Patrick Olsen and Lorraine Lynch, who were unable to attend, were recognized for their gifts and bequests to The Rotary Foundation.

Guardian of Integrity awards were presented by District Vocational Service chair Bill Tubbs (l) and DG Jacque Andrew to Jim Smith (North Scott), Elaine Graham Estes (Des Moines) and Bob Morrison (Davenport). Jim Swaim of Iowa City AM was not present.

Genevieve Gaston of Blue Grass, who will be an outbound exchange student to Ecuador in 2014-15 sponsored by North Scott Rotary, with incoming club president Steve Fahrenkrog.

The Youth Exchange flag ceremony is an inspirational event at District Conference. North Scott Rotarians Dennis Peterson and Paul Kalainoff are leaders in Youth Exchange.

North Scott Rotary, represented by Steve Fahrenkrog and Steve Suiter, was one of six clubs recognized for membership growth from July 1, 2013, to March 31, 2014.

North Scott Rotary, represented by Steve Suiter, was one of 14 Rotary clubs and one Interact club who received the Presidential Citation for achievements in Rotary's Five Avenues of Service: Club, Community, Vocational, International, and Youth.
