North Scott Rotary Serves

June / July Volunteer Opportunities

July 9-13: John Deere Classic Hole Marshall in cooperation with The Iowa Quad Cities Rotary Club. We utilize the Birdies for Charities to enhance our givings to Special Olympics. See Merle Anderson or Tom Messer to volunteer.

July 12: Eldridge Moonlight Chase. Join your fellow Rotarians for a fun night of fellowship as we operate a water stop on the 4 mile race course. Refreshments available at the site and festivities uptown after the race. See Steve Fahrenkrog.

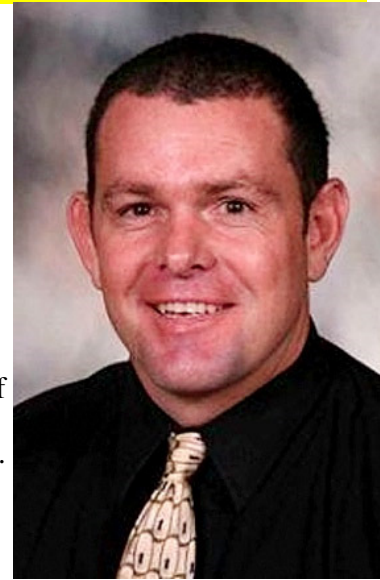

July 28: "Carnival" Fizz Boom Read at the Eldridge Branch of the Scott County Library and all outlying branches, including Princeton, Durant, Walcott, Buffalo, and Blue Grass. This is Part of our District Grant Project for this year. With our help the project is funded and many hours of Rotarian involvement to support our own Christine Garrow, who is in charge of the program, and the project. See Christine Garrow to Volunteer.

July 29—August 3: Mississippi Valley Fair, gate ticket takers at east gate by antique tractors. Earn money for the North Scott Rotary Grant Donations by doing this easy project for 4 hours per shift. Gate is open 8 hours per day. Contact Dennis or Deb Peterson

THIS FRIDAY AT THE STEEPLGATE

North Scott Superintendents
Now and Future
Jeff Schwiebert
Joe Stutting

North Scott Rotarian Jeff Schwiebert, who accepted a position as superintendent of schools in the Sarell-St. Stephen School District near St. Cloud, Minn., in February, was scheduled to speak in March about his five years at North Scott. That date didn't work, but was rescheduled to June, and instead of Jeff, will be a joint appearance with his successor at North Scott, Joe Stutting. In one program, Rotarians will hear both the "past" and the "future" of North Scott! Jeff and his wife, Deb, came to North Scott in 2009 from Mount Vernon, Iowa, where he was a teacher, coach and superintendent. Joe is a native of Camanche who is the current superintendent of schools at Sturgeon Bay, Wis. He is also the president of the Rotary Club of Sturgeon Bay, and he and his wife, Jami, who were guests at North Scott Rotary in April, have been active with Rotary Youth Exchange. So Friday, in our last "regular" meeting of the 2013-14 Rotary year, we'll get a "two-fer." Another "can't miss" program for North Scott Rotary!

LAST WEEK

LAST MEETING – June 13, 2014 – Bob Fox, General Manager Mississippi Valley Fair

Due to a last minute program change, Becky Bray arranged for Bob Fox to speak at Rotary on Friday. He mentioned the Grandstand Acts that would be performing in 2014 and that the budget for the six evenings of entertainment was $900,000. The Fun Cards that are sold bring in enough money to cover the six acts. Bob starts planning the next year's fair, the day after the current fair is over.

Steve Fahrenkrog presided over the meeting in the absence of Steve Suiter. Fifty seven attended including Davenport Rotarian, Jessica Licko-Avants. Other guests were: Mindy Helms, Nancy Case and Pat DeLuca. Jeff Helms gave $200 in honor of the North Scott Rotarians that attended his 75th year in business, open house. Paul Seelau announced that the Interact Club at the Junior High raised $200 for Juvenile Diabetes by having a pie in the face contest for teachers. John Maxwell was the sergeant and collected $27 in fines.

RETURNING ROTARIANS

Two former North Scott Rotarians have come back to rejoin the club. Jeff Ashcraft is now a leader at the Handicapped Development Center in Davenport. Jeff lives in Eldridge, is married to Crista and has three grown children.

Dr. Pascal DeLuca, retired superintendent of North Scott Schools, has returned to Eldridge to build his retirement home. He retired in the Rockford, IL area two years ago. Pat is married to Mary Ann and is a former president of North Scott Rotary.

If anyone has any questions or concerns about Jeff or Pat, please contact Dennis.
