Dick Cole's invisible pie makes a great hit as it reappears.

Dear Dick,

Your pie was faithfully delivered to Jacquie at the District Office in Pella on Oct. 17 where it was shared by Jacquie with the Board of Directors. It was delicious!

Thank you, Dick and Jacquie!

Jacquie's gift to our auction is greatly appreciated, as she purchased the chocolate pie baked by Shirley Cole, and brought by Dick Cole.

LAST WEEK

LAST MEETING – October 18, 2013 – Michelle Russell; Live Uncommon

Michelle and Jim Russell founded Live Uncommon in June of 2011. It is a nonprofit organization that serves the community in many ways. They sponsor exceptional individuals in each one's own activity. Scott Case lined up this program, as his granddaughter, Maddie Case runs on the Live Uncommon team. The charity that she is raising money for is Make A Wish.

Paul Seelau was the highest bidder, at $150, for the pair of Iowa football tickets and a ride on Rob's Party Bus. Jeremy Kaiser gave a report on the Harvest Party and Patrick Olsen encouraged all to attend the auction on October 24.
