North Scott Rotary Serves

North Scott Rotary Celebrated Valentines Day 2016 With a special presentation by North Scott teacher and Lancer Production head Stacy Kintigh.

Four members of the dinner theater production: Nice work if you can get it. This production was presented Feb 12-14, and will be presented next Weekend Feb 19-21.

Ali Watkins performed a solo from the production and was accompanied by Tewanta Lopez.

Ms Kintigh told of the work that our School Shop support has helped her to accomplish. This program provides funds to be used in support of students as the teachers see a need. This fund is available for North Scott and Davenport Schools, and is administered by Jeremy Kaiser: Chair

THIS FRIDAY AT THE STEEPLEGATE

Ron Corbett : Mayor Cedar Rapids: Founder/President Engage Iowa

Ron Corbett graduated from Newton High School and then from Cornell College in Mount Vernon, before moving to Cedar Rapids. From there, he built a storied career in public and private leadership positions, and as a pragmatic conservative with big ideas for his City and for the State of Iowa.

Ron served seven terms in the Iowa House of Representatives, including four years as Speaker of the House. Wanting to be closer to home with his five children in their formative years, Ron took on a new challenge in 1999 as President & CEO of the Cedar Rapids Area Chamber of Commerce, which he led for six years.

He's had several successes in private business, as an insurance agent, a startup business entrepreneur, and as vice president at CRST International. Throughout his private sector service, his passion for public policy and politics never dimmed. He was oft-involved in Iowa's most important issue debates.

He was recruited back into public service following the Flood of 2008, as Cedar Rapids struggled to recover from the worst natural disaster in Iowa history. He's now in his seventh year as mayor, leading Cedar Rapids to an amazing recovery that includes strong job and population growth along with stable tax rates.

Ron also is a Rotarian and a Paul Harris Fellow.

His latest venture is the non-profit Engage Iowa, a think tank helping to engage Iowans in discussion about common sense solutions to Iowa's most serious economic, educational and environmental issues.

Ron is the founder and the president of Engage Iowa.

Foundation Minute for Week of February 15

Through an International District Grant, The South Metro Minneapolis Evening Rotary Club with a membership of twelve was able to purchase musical instruments for an all-female orchestra in Antigua, Guatemala. The goal of this project was to draw attention to the issues faced by girls and young women in Guatemala, and to offer solutions that involve active participation by all sectors of society. Those girls who participate will be trained to become professional musicians and will enable each female member to be more impactful in their Guatemalan society.

Your donation to The Rotary Foundation helped make this happen. Thank you.

LAST WEEK

LAST MEETING – February 12, 2016 – Valentine meeting

With the last minute cancelation of Miss Iowa, due to illness, Ms. Stacie Kintigh and four North Scott High School drama students, filled in at the last minute to promote the Winter Musical Comedy. Students present were: Shane Dierickx (sound board manager), Elizabeth Ferry (Daisy & Slim), Isabel Conner (Cookie McGee) and Ali Watkins (Billie Bendix, female bootlegger). Ali sang a solo, accompanied by Tewanta. The Musical is: Nice Work If You Can Get It and will still be showing on Feb. 20 & 21, at North Scott High School.

About 90 attended the Valentine lunch, which included cupcakes, candy and roses, in addition to lunch. Jeff Helms presided in the absence of Glen Keppy.

The 4 Way Test

Of the things we THINK SAY or DO

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOOD WILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
