Junior Rotarians March 2016

The spring group of Junior Rotarians attended Rotary the past four weeks.

From Davenport Assumption High School we had juniors Sarah Huber and Chase Brandt. Sarah (not pictured) is very involved in Music and Drama and Chase is a very active member of the track team. He will spend his spring break running.

From Davenport North High School we had juniors Rachel Luong and Jerry Ridenhour. Rachel plans to attend ISU and major in Diet and Exercise. She will practice her tennis skills over spring break. Jerry loves to play soccer and plans to visit some relatives over spring break.

From North Scott High School we had juniors Molly McCunn (not pictured) and Jaden Wilshusen. Jaden loves to play Football and plans to visit grandparents in Alabama over spring break.

THIS FRIDAY AT THE STEEPLEGATE

James W. Victor – Senior Vice President, Senior Portfolio Management Director, Financial Advisor, Morgan Stanley.

Jim Victor chairs the Genesis Philanthropy Board of Directors and was instrumental in bringing the organization to life in 2013. Jim has demonstrated his passion for health and wellness through his decades-long service on the Genesis Health Services Foundation Board of Directors and its predecessor, the Mercy Hospital Foundation Board.

Under Jim's leadership, Genesis Philanthropy has successfully launched three population health regional initiatives addressing lung cancer, metabolic syndrome, and healthy starts for newborns. Two other Genesis Philanthropy initiatives are in the planning stages: behavioral health, and nursing workforce development and diversity.

Jim has built and grown his business with Morgan Stanley beginning with the firm in 1973. He is a member their Presidents Council, a small group of senior brokers selected for their performance. He has the distinction of being full time portfolio manager on a number of accounts, a rare position among brokers. He is the KWQC-TV6 financial commentator, appearing live Monday on the morning news, Quad Cities Today, for that NBC affiliate station. He is the writer of the weekly "Focus on the Fifteen" column in the Quad-City Times which analyzes economic trends and area businesses.

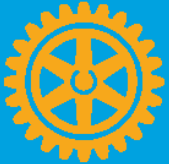

Jim has served on the Board of Directors of the United Way of the Quad Cities Area. He was Chairman of the 1993 United Way Campaign, and was the 1995 Chairman of the Board. Also, he is an experienced consultant and the recipient of the National Gold Leadership Award of Junior Achievement. He is a current board member and former Chairman of the Board of Directors of Junior Achievement. Jim works on numerous other community activities.

Jim is a native Iowan, from the Cedar Rapids area, and holds a B.S. in Industrial Administration from Iowa State University. He enjoys hobbies including racing sports cars, and raced in the 2004 "24 Hours of Daytona", also running, skiing, playing piano, and reading.

LAST WEEK

LAST MEETING – March 11, 2016 – Jack Carey; Ambassador of Goodwill

Sixty nine attended on Friday, including the Junior Rotarians pictured on the front page. Other guests were Ralph Heninger from Davenport Rotary, Nancy Case, guest of Scott Case, Barb Swanson, guest of Becky Bray, and Josie Seymour, Sales manager with the Steeplegate. Also present was honorary member, Jerry Hanson. Last week honorary member Bill Puck was present and I don't think he even got introduced!

Jack Carey sang the Star Spangled Banner at the beginning of the meeting. He has retired with over 30 years of radio broadcasting and continues to mentor young people and adults with problems. Jack sings professionally and has made several CD's. He says to "Keep looking forward."

Jeff Helms presided over the meeting in the absence of Glen Keppy. Eric Langan was the sergeant and collected $43 in fines. Dr. Fred Mulch was bragging about the Illini basketball team and had his nifty team flag around his neck.

The 4 Way Test

Of the things we THINK SAY or DO

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOOD WILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
